

Which professions require a professional license in Dubai?

Talking about the professional license in Dubai involves understanding various licensing requirements. Professionals like consultants, accountants, and healthcare providers need the license. Each profession has its criteria reflecting the Emirates' commitment to high standards. Licensing ensures quality and trustworthiness in the services offered to the public. Read this article to learn more.