

All aboard for fun and learning!

Playtime is very important for children as it helps them develop their social skills with others. By listening, paying attention and sharing play experiences, a child explores feelings and develops self-discipline. It is important to find a child care provider who will allow your child to explore and grow.

The Child Care Square

info@thechildcaresquare.com

| www.thechildcaresquare.com

All aboard for fun and learning!