

Top Security Measures in SOC

In a Security Operations Center (SOC), Top Security Measures include robust network monitoring, advanced threat detection tools, real-time incident response capabilities, continuous security training for personnel, strict access controls, and regular security audits. These measures collectively fortify an organization's defenses against cyber threats, ensuring a proactive and resilient security posture.

