Are you thinking of Landscaping your backyard?

Good landscaping ideas are essential for taking a backyard from drab to fab. Subsequently, even the most beautifully planted plot needs a proper arrangement to have the wow factor. Whether you are curious about completely redesigning your landscape or simply making a few changes, some crucial elements need to be considered before planning your backyard's basic requirements. As many people head straight to their local gardening supply store to browse the selections, designing a plan beforehand will help you pick aesthetics that best fit your needs and flourish in your backyard landscape.

While it's easy to go out and be enticed into buying varieties that look stunning at the garden shop, only to bring them home and learn they are unsuitable for your landscape. Proper planning and steering you on the right track to creating a beautiful, cohesive, and thriving landscape are what you feel. Thus, to make it right and get what you need for your backyard to look superb and splendor, here is a one-stop solution for those who are exploring this area and want to make your landscape garden and backyard look fantastic.

Assembling most of your outdoor space is easy if you have a cover installed, whether a Pergola, garden building, or simply a roof built directly onto the side of your home. We at 800 Landscaping does this for you. So, if you wish to include a patio or deck in your landscaping scheme, it's well worth considering a shelter overhead. Opt for a transparent roof to keep the scene bright and light if you're not precisely after shade. Plus, you can look up and admire the blue sky, pattering rain, or the nighttime stars. And if it's sturdy, you can utilize overhead beams when it comes to your furniture.

The #1 Pergola Design & Pergola Suppliers in Dubai

We plan, build, and maintain pergolas.

With a bit of imagination and originality (and, admittedly, a bit of a budget), they can become an enduring fixture in your backyard that will elevate the overall look and extend the time you spend outdoors all year round. We love how the sleek hardwood canopy articulates the view of the flower-filled space beyond, with the timber pleasingly contrasting against the paving and gravel. Benches offer abundant sitting space, while integrated lights will brighten the nightfall zone. It's a beautiful twist on a classic pergola. Our 800 Landscaping professionals comprehend the prerequisite of the household, plan and design a befitting landscape with stunning pergolas and wooden works. We also add components like trees and shrubs, garden lights, and water fountains to make your place look more beautiful.
