

Golconda Fort

Golconda Fort, situated in the city of Hyderabad, Telangana, is an imposing structure that dates back to the 12th century. Initially a mud fort, Golconda underwent extensive renovations under the reign of the Qutb Shahi dynasty, transforming into the formidable fortress it is today. The fort, perched atop a granite hill, served as a strategic military stronghold and a thriving trade center during its zenith. One of Golconda Fort's defining features is its acoustic architecture, particularly the renowned Fateh Darwaza or Victory Gate. For more, visit the link below:
