

What is the Route of Golden Chariot Train? Let's explore

An extraordinary royal train, The Golden Chariot is a royal door to the soul of South India. It offers the perfect combination of leisure and luxury, this luxurious train has everything that will make your journey a dream holiday. After days of unabating hustle, everyone deserves to be treated like Mahrajas. This golden chariot will make you experience royalty away from the chaos of everyday life amidst the serene beauty of south India. On an enchanting journey across South India, the Golden Chariot route passes through undiscovered and well-known tourist destinations.

Overview of the Golden Chariot train route map

It is difficult to pick a few places in South India because there is so much to explore and do. This is why The Golden Chariot Train offers a few wholesome tour packages. IRCTC golden chariot packages cover architectural marvels like the Mysore Palace to ancient ruins in Hampi, from the delightful churches in North Goa to the huge palaces in Chettinad. A comprehensive outline of the individual packages with the respective route map and duration is provided below. It is crucial to know the Golden Chariot Train route and fares to plan the holiday.

The three itineraries curated by IRCTC are

- Pride of Karnataka
- Glimpses of Karnataka

- Jewels of South

Pride of Karnataka

Duration - Five nights, Six days

Route- Starting from Bengaluru it travels back to Bengaluru with stops at Nanjangud, Mysore, Halebidu, Chikmagalur, Hospet, and Goa

This itinerary offers you a glimpse of the beautiful temples of Mysore and Halebidu. You can also go on visits, safaris, heritage site excursions, and cultural events.

Jewels of South

Duration- Five nights, Six days

Route- Starts from Bengaluru and travels through Mysore, Kanchipuram, Mahabalipuram, Thanjavur, Chettinad/Karaikudi, Cochin, Chertala/Mararikulam, and back to Bengaluru.

This well-planned tour offers a taste of South India's distinguished monuments and beautiful backwaters.

Glimpses of Karnataka

Duration- Three nights, Four days

Route- It starts and ends in Bengaluru and includes Nanjangud, Mysore, and Hospet

Enchanting places in the itinerary

Mysore Palace

This royal palace is a splendid combination of Indo-Saracenic and Gothic styles. The walls of the palace are decorated with detailed carvings and floral paintings, the palace is the epitome of grandeur of the Wadiyar dynasty.

Mattancherry Palace

This palace is also popular among the people with the name of the Dutch Palace. It is a unique fusion of Kerala architecture and European influences. The murals and photos depict the epic life of Rajas of Kochi.

Hampi Ruins

The UNESCO World Heritage Site of Hampi unfolds the ruins of the Vijayanagara Empire. The stunning stone temples, bazaars, and detailed carvings reflect the grandeur of that era.

Bandipur

Bandipur Tiger Reserve is heaven for wildlife enthusiasts. One can spot tigers, elephants, and various species of birds in the forest.

Chikkamagaluru Coffee Plantation

For all coffee lovers, this place is a must-go. This place will enchant you with the aroma of coffee beans and the lush green farms.

Brihadeeswarar Temple

The temple was built by the kings of the Chola dynasty. Its detailed carvings and high vimana are evidence of the architectural brilliance of that time.

Conclusion

The Golden Chariot is synonymous with royal travelling and coming across life-changing experiences. The journey offers a sneak peek into the enchanting beauty of South India in different packages. IRCTC luxury train packages are the best options, whether you want to spend some quality time with your better half or plan a leisurely holiday with your family. So go to the website, select your package, and enjoy some days amidst nature.

Source: - golden chariot train route map