

EBC + Gokyo, Cho-La and Renjo La Pass

EBC with Gokyo, Cho-La and Renjo La Pass is the perfect trip for challenge seeking mountain lovers! After Everest Base Camp, the route crosses two high passes: the Cho La (5420m) and the Renjo La (5345m). Without technical climbing, this is a perfect route to explore the high passes of the famous Khumbu region of Nepal. In fact, this trek offers an ever-lasting experience of natural beauty, spectacular sights of towering Himalayan peaks and in depth cross-cultural discovery of the Everest region.

The EBC with Gokyo, Cho-La and Renjo La Pass trek is designed for passionate trekkers who are looking for more challenging treks. Especially the high mountain passes make this trek unique: They belong to the highest mountain passes in the world. Moreover, you will also have the option of summiting the top of two viewpoint summits: Gokyo Ri (5357m) and Kala Patthar (5545m). The summit of Gokyo Ri (5,360m) provides a life time memory from where the 360 degree view of Mt. Cho Oyu, Mt. Everest and Mt. Makalu is truly panoramic. In addition, an excursion to the fourth and fifth lakes would be an extra adventure from Gokyo.

Click here for more detail