

3 Homemade Wet Dog Food Recipes

Frequently, canines become disinterested in their usual, monotonous kibble. When dogs decline to partake of meals, it may be a sign that they are unwell or have gastrointestinal distress. For such cases, we offer a variety of homemade wet dog food recipes to help stimulate canine appetites.

Veterinarians often suggest a wet food diet, or a combination of wet and dry food, when a dog is showing a lack of appetite. For pet owners looking for an extra special touch, there are numerous homemade recipes that can be made with ingredients from the grocery store. Here are five of the most beloved wet food meals that your pup will adore.

3 Homemade Wet Dog Food Recipes

1. Turkey Dinner with All the Fixins

This delicious combination of poultry, brown rice, and vegetables will have your pup begging for more. For dog owners who prefer commercial canned dog food brands, this homemade recipe follows the same 50% protein, 25% vegetables, 25% carbohydrates split that many brands feature. This formula is also easily customizable, allowing for modifications according to your pet's individual requirements.

Serving Size: 1 cup

Makes about 13 servings

Ingredients

3 Cups Water

1 Tablespoon Olive Oil

3 Pounds Ground Turkey

1 ½ Cups Brown Rice

3 cups Baby Spinach (chopped)

2 Carrots (shredded)

½ Cup Peas (canned or frozen)

1 Zucchini (shredded)

Supplies

- Measuring Cups and Spoons
- 4 Quart Saucepan
- Rice Cooker
- Food Processor or Peeler
- Freezer Bags

Directions

- Add rice and water to the rice cooker and cook according to your cooker's instructions.
- Heat olive oil in a saucepan over a medium heat.
- Add ground turkey to the saucepan.
- Cook about 3-5 minutes until brown – stirring frequently.
- Add the cooked brown rice to the pan and stir.
- Stir in spinach, carrots, zucchini, and peas and cook for 5 minutes.

- Let cool for 15 minutes.
- Serve 1 cup and place the rest in freezer bags.
- Freeze the bags. (Reheat servings on the stove to retain better taste and texture.)

2. Bullets and Rice

Give your pup a delicious, classic feast. These homemade wet dog food recipes were a preferred choice amongst dog owners I would visit due to their affordability and straightforward preparation. Balanced with nutritionally beneficial meat, grains, and veggies, this is a wonderful meal that can be tailor-made.

Serving Size: 1 cup

Makes about 15 servings

Ingredients

- 5 Pounds of Ground Beef
- 5 Eggs
- 2 Cups Cooked Brown Rice
- 2 Cups Vegetables (Mix Is Your Choice)

Supplies

- Rice Cooker
- 4 Quart Saucepan
- Measuring Cup
- Large Stirring Spoon
- Freezer Bags

Directions

- Beat eggs and mix with meat. Form meatballs and bake at 400 degrees for 45 minutes.

- Cook the rice by following the directions on your rice cooker.
- Cook frozen vegetables by directions on the bag or cook can vegetables (no salt) for about 20 minutes on medium heat.
- Mix the rice and meatballs in the saucepan.
- Vegetables can be mixed in or served on the side.
- Let cool for 15 minutes before serving.
- Store leftovers in a freezer-safe container and place them in the freezer.

3. Canine Stew

This three-meat homemade wet dog food recipe is jam-packed with nutritious ingredients. It includes potatoes, rice, and three different types of protein, making it a wholesome and hearty meal to keep your pup's tail wagging after long walks or cool evenings. This is a large recipe; halve the amounts if you don't have the space in the freezer.

Serving Size: 1 cup

Makes about 24 servings

Ingredients

- 1 Pound of Ground Beef
- ½ Pound Ground Turkey
- ½ Pound Ground Chicken
- 3 Eggs – Beaten
