

Ranks first in batting average in the U.S. Summer League

Yoon Young-ha, a promising Korean baseball player who belongs to the Putnam Science Academy (PSA), ranked first in the batting average while participating in the summer league as a member of the Borabo Club in Dallas, central Texas. 토토사이트 순위

The Summer League is a league held all over the region starting from the U.S. summer vacation, and amateur and elite baseball players who dream of major leagues gather to play games.

There are various age groups, including those from 15 to 33 years old, and it is composed of players with various experiences, including those released from the minor leagues.

Catcher Yoon Young-ha is young at the age of 15, but he is currently ranked first in the batting average in the team and has shown excellent catcher defense and is showing excellent performance.

Since the confrontation, his outstanding skills in PSA have continued in the Summer League, receiving calls from various coaches in the United States, and is also contributing to promoting Korean baseball.

Choi Ki-moon and agent Adrian, who manage Yoon Young-ha, said they will wrap up the summer league on August 4 and return home for a short time on August 6 to continue individual training.