

Container stacking | LOTUS Containers

Container stacking is the placement of containers to utilize the optimum space inside the vessels. For efficient stacking, you must comply with the weight limits and security measures. According to ISO guidelines, only nine containers are allowed. Contact LOTUS Containers for efficient logistics services for secure and optimized container stacking.

