How can I get my emails out of Yahoo Mail Trash?

When you delete an email, it is not removed permanently. Yahoo Mail sends the message to your Trash folder, where it will remain until you empty it. As a result, in order to retrieve deleted emails, you must restore them from your Yahoo Mail Trash folder. To do so, follow the steps below.

- Log in to your Yahoo Mail account.
- Go to your trash can on the left side of your mailbox.
- To recover deleted emails, look through them.
- From the tools at the top of your email list, select "Move," then the folder to which you want to restore your email.

Deleted Yahoo Emails Can Be Recovered

To recover messages that have been lost or deleted in the last seven days, or to undelete messages that have been erased after you've emptied the Trash folder:

- 1- Go to the Yahoo! Mail page for recovering lost or deleted emails. Send a Restore Request by clicking the Send a Restore Request button.
- 2- Describe the issue using the drop-down menu. In this situation, choose Mail: WebMail mails accidentally erased. If you're using a mobile device, there's also a choice.
- 3- From the drop-down selection under When did you last see the missing communications, select the appropriate time frame. The maximum time allowed is 16 hours.
- 4- Complete the remaining form fields, check the CAPTCHA box, and click Create a Request.

Forward or download any new messages while you wait for Yahoo to restore your Yahoo Mail account to the condition it was in at the chosen time from a backup copy. Your existing email boxes and folders are replaced by the backup.
