

Cryptocurrency: All You Need To Know

Cryptocurrency is a that can be exchanged online in order to buy goods and services. People use an online ledger with strong cryptography to secure online transactions. Cryptocurrencies use a technology, known as Block chain. Block chain manages and records online transactions.