

Deliciously Bold & Smooth: A Deep Dive into Custard Monster Strawberry & Vanilla Salt Nic E-Liquids

For vape enthusiasts who crave decadent dessert flavors, Custard Monster by Monster Vape Labs is an indulgence that satisfies both sweet tooth and nicotine needs. Known for delivering velvety custard profiles with rich undertones, the Custard Monster Salt Nicotine line is a popular choice among those who enjoy smooth mouth-to-lung hits infused with bold dessert character. Today, we explore two standout flavors from this line: Strawberry and Vanilla, both blended with salt nicotine for a faster, more satisfying nicotine experience.

What is Custard Monster Salt Nic?

Before diving into the flavors, it's important to understand what makes Custard Monster Salt Nic e-liquids special. Produced by Monster Vape Labs, the brand behind hits like Jam Monster, this collection focuses exclusively on dessert lovers, especially fans of custard—one of the richest and most luxurious profiles in vaping.

Salt nicotine, the base of this series, differs from traditional freebase nicotine. It's smoother on the throat, absorbed more efficiently, and allows higher nicotine strengths without the harsh throat hit, making it ideal for pod systems and MTL (mouth-to-lung) devices.

Flavor Profile 1: Custard Monster Strawberry Salt Nic

Custard Monster Strawberry Salt Nic is a delectable fusion of ripe strawberries and creamy vanilla custard. This flavor hits the mark with its perfect balance between fruity and rich, bringing you the experience of diving into a bowl of fresh strawberries topped with velvety custard.

Flavor Experience:

- Inhale: You're instantly greeted by a burst of bright, ripe strawberry. It's juicy, sweet, and authentic—like biting into a fresh berry.
- Exhale: The smooth, creamy custard rolls in, blending with the strawberry to create a sweet, creamy finish that lingers on the palate.
- Aftertaste: A lingering dessert sweetness with a slight berry tang—never overwhelming, but enough to leave you wanting more.

Nicotine Strength Options:

- 24mg (2.4%)
- 48mg (4.8%)

These options cater to both moderate and heavy nicotine users who prefer fast satisfaction with minimal puffs. The throat hit is smooth and consistent, thanks to the salt nicotine formulation.

E-Liquid Specs:

- Bottle Size: 30mL
 - VG/PG Ratio: 50/50 – perfect for optimal flavor delivery in low-wattage pod systems
 - Device Compatibility: Best used in MTL devices and refillable pod kits—not suitable for sub-ohm tanks or high-wattage mods
 - Brand Origin: Manufactured by Monster Vape Labs, USA
 - Child-resistant Cap and leak-proof design for safety and ease of use

Flavor Profile 2: Custard Monster Vanilla Salt Nic

For purists who love the warm, comforting notes of straight-up vanilla, Custard Monster Vanilla Salt Nic offers a rich, creamy journey that is anything but basic. This flavor is designed for those who appreciate the sophistication of classic vanilla custard done right—without distractions.

Flavor Experience:

- Inhale: A deep wave of custard hits first, followed closely by the warmth of Madagascar-style vanilla beans.
- Exhale: The flavor blossoms with a smooth, silky sweetness that coats your mouth in a buttery-soft finish.
- Aftertaste: Think of homemade vanilla pudding, still warm, with hints of caramelized sugar—it's rich and layered.

While it may seem like a simple profile, the attention to detail in balancing the vanilla and custard notes makes it a standout in the dessert vape category.

Nicotine Strength Options:

- 24mg (2.4%)

- 48mg (4.8%)

This flavor provides a satisfying nicotine buzz without harshness, making it perfect for all-day vaping if you enjoy smooth and rich dessert flavors.

Best Devices to Use with Custard Monster Salt Nic

Since this line is made with 50/50 VG/PG and salt nicotine, you should avoid using them in sub-ohm devices. Instead, here are some suitable devices:

- Uwell Caliburn G2 / G3
- SMOK Nord 5
- Voopoo Vinci Q
- GeekVape Aegis Nano
- Lost Vape Orion Series

These devices are ideal for delivering full flavor with efficient nicotine absorption and minimal coil gunking, thanks to the clean-burning formulation of Custard Monster.

Who Are These Flavors For?

Whether you're new to vaping or a seasoned enthusiast looking to indulge in premium dessert profiles, Custard Monster Strawberry and Vanilla Salt Nic cater to:

- Former smokers seeking a satisfying throat hit and strong nicotine fix
 - Dessert lovers who crave a true-to-taste custard experience
 - Pod system users looking for high-performance e-liquids that won't burn coils or flood pods
 - Vapers with a sweet tooth who want something smoother than candy or menthol profiles

Final Thoughts: Rich, Creamy, and Absolutely Addictive

The Custard Monster Salt Nic collection nails the balance between luxurious flavor and practical performance. The Strawberry option brings a fruity burst that pairs perfectly with the rich custard base, while the Vanilla flavor offers a timeless, comforting vape that's simple yet unforgettable. Both deliver a smooth and satisfying experience ideal for MTL vapers who appreciate dessert-inspired flavors without any of the guilt.

So if you're ready to upgrade your flavor game and enjoy a smoother salt nic journey, give Custard Monster Strawberry Salt Nic and Custard Monster Vanilla Salt Nic a try. These aren't just e-liquids—they're dessert in vapor form.
