

Pakistani Dramas Of All Time - Trendingadda

Pakistani dramas All the time have been popular for several decades and have gained a lot of recognition not only in Pakistan but also in other parts of the world.

Pakistani dramas are known for their compelling storylines, strong characters, and exceptional performances by the actors. In this blog post, we'll be taking a look at some of the best Pakistani dramas of all time.

Humsafar:

Humsafar is a romantic drama that aired in 2011 and starred Fawad Khan and Mahira Khan in lead roles. The story revolves around a young couple who fall in love and then face various challenges to keep their relationship intact. The drama was a massive hit and received critical acclaim both in Pakistan and internationally.

Zindagi Gulzar Hai:

Zindagi Gulzar Hai is a story of two people from different backgrounds who fall in love and have to overcome various obstacles to be together. The drama starred Sanam Saeed and Fawad Khan in lead roles and was a major success both in Pakistan and India.

Meri Zaat Zarra-e-Benishan:

Meri Zaat Zarra-e-Benishan is a family drama that aired in 2009 and starred Samiya Mumtaz, Faysal Qureshi, and Adnan Siddiqui in lead roles. The story revolves around a woman who faces various hardships in life and how she overcomes them. The drama was critically acclaimed and won several awards.

Dhoop Kinare:

Dhoop Kinare is a classic drama that aired in 1987 and starred Rahat Kazmi and Marina Khan in lead roles. The story revolves around the lives of doctors working in a hospital and the relationships they form with each other. The drama is still considered one of the best Pakistani dramas of all time.

Alpha Bravo Charlie:

Alpha Bravo Charlie is a military drama that aired in 1998 and starred Faraz Inam, Abdullah Mehmood, and Qasim Khan in lead roles. The drama depicts the lives of three friends who join the army and how they deal with the challenges they face. The drama was a major hit and is still considered one of the best Pakistani dramas of all time.

Udaari:

Udaari is a social issue drama that aired in 2016 and starred Ahsan Khan and Farhan Saeed in lead roles. The story revolves around the issue of child sexual abuse and how it affects the lives of the victims and their families. The drama was widely appreciated for its bold and sensitive portrayal of the issue.

Mere Pass Tum Ho:

Mere Pass Tum Ho is a romantic drama that aired in 2019 and starred Humayun Saeed and Ayeza Khan in lead roles. The story revolves around a couple who face various challenges in their relationship and how they deal with them. The drama was a major success and was widely discussed on social media.

In conclusion,

Pakistani dramas have been producing some of the best content in the entertainment industry. The dramas mentioned above are just a few examples of the exceptional work produced by Pakistani writers, directors, and actors. These dramas have not only entertained people but have also raised awareness about social issues and helped in changing the mindset of the viewers.