Known as “the King of the Flowering Trees”, its Essence can help you to draw in what’s needed to feel protected or safe, as well as to learn to self nurture. It may be especially beneficial if you are a new, single, or expectant mother, and struggle with feelings of inadequacy around parenting, or if you feel like you’re “not strong enough for life.” African Tulip Tree Essence can help you summon your inner, core-level strength, so you can fight off such feelings, as needed, to survive and thrive.
