

Dosage for Fioricet – Safe Use, Limits & Warnings

Fioricet happens to be the most common combination prescription drug recommended by medical practitioners for treating stress-centric headaches and migraines. The dosage for Fioricet prescribed by doctors is 1-2 capsules or pills for adults to be taken every four hours. Nevertheless, the maximum dosage capacity should not exceed 6 tablets a day. Otherwise, overdose conditions such as liver ailments and respiratory issues might be triggered. Again, the patients also need to stay away from alcohol and various sedative drugs; as such a combination can cause harmful side effects for the body. Now, for patients prolonged usage can trigger physical addictions that can even generate seizures and tremors. Hence, the physician's suggested dose and steps should be applied to stop this prescribed medication. Explore Fioricet Capsule.