

The Benefits of TimeLapse Technology for Construction and Infrastructure Projects

Timelapse technology has revolutionised the way construction and infrastructure projects are planned and executed. Timelapse is a type of videography which records an event happening over a long period of time, and then compresses it into a much shorter duration.