

Telkonol 40 Tablet: Uses & Side Effects

Telkonol 40 Tablet is a medicine commonly used to treat high blood pressure and heart failure. Lowering vital helps to prevent future heart attacks and strokes. This medicine is additionally effective in preserving kidney function in patients with diabetes.

Telkonol 40 Tablets are prescribed either alone or in combination with other medicines. This medication should be taken at any time of day or night, with or without food. Taking it regularly is important even if you feel fine or if your blood pressure is under control. Usually, people with high blood pressure do not feel ill, but stopping this medicine could worsen your condition. There is a widespread acceptance of this medicine, and it is considered safe to be used for a long period of time.

