

Processed Egg Market by Application and Type: Global Opportunity Analysis & Industry Forecast, 2029

Global Processed Egg Market was valued at USD 21.62 Billion in 2021 and is expected to reach USD 28.35 Billion by the year 2028, at a CAGR of 3.95%

Eggs have always been major ingredients in cuisines over the globe because of their important role in many branches of the modern food industry, particularly in baking. Eggs are high in lecithin as well as a variety of other important nutrients and bioactive components. To produce processed eggs, appropriate for diverse purposes, the eggshells are removed and the liquid product (egg yolk and egg white) separated. They're found in a variety of products, including baked goods, confectionaries, sauces, dressings, and spreads, as well as personal care items like shampoo and soap.
