Aug 6, · Birchot Hashachar – “The Morning Blessings” are a way in which Jewish people express gratitude each day. Saying the morning blessings gives us an opportunity to be grateful for all we have: for waking up in the morning, for having clothes to wear, for having eyes that see and for having all the things we need. For example, Did you know. Praised are You, Adonai our God, Ruler of the Universe, who has given the rooster understanding to tell the difference between day and night. Praised are You who made me of the people Israel. Praised are You who made me free. Praised are You who opens the eyes of the blind. Praised are You who clothes the naked. the main exercises of the Shema and the Amidah. As a whole, P’sukei d’Zimra are hymns of praise for all of God’s creation, and where Bir-kot Ha-Shachar brought our bodies. he Amidah is what everything else is leading to. The early rabbis referred to the Amidah simply as “The Prayer,” and imagined it being said with such.
