

Argus safety certification

Argus Safety Certification is a professional training program designed to provide in-depth knowledge of Oracle Argus Safety software, widely used in pharmacovigilance and drug safety management. The certification equips professionals with the skills to manage adverse event reporting, case processing, and regulatory compliance in the pharmaceutical industry. It covers various aspects like case data entry, medical coding, workflow management, and reporting. This certification is highly valued by pharmaceutical companies, offering career growth opportunities for individuals pursuing a career in drug safety and pharmacovigilance.