The green dress that female stars love to wear. Are you ready?

Today I want to talk about green clothes. When it comes to green clothes, many people are afraid. This color is really hard to control, but in fact, this color is also very eye-catching and easy to become the focus. For example, what still impresses me is the green skirt in the film atonement.

It's so beautiful. This dress, however, was selected as one of the 10 most beautiful skirts in film history!

And the goddess Audrey Hepburn, who dares to say that green is not good-looking?

From common mint green, olive green and dark green to bold and bright fluorescent green and apricot green, the wild index of different green is different。

Which type and color is best for our daily dress and affordable?

(1) Minty green gives people a fresh feeling. In spring and summer, a mint green fairy skirt is an easy way to dress and wear.

(2) The combination of flower elements and mint green, idyllic and fresh, can be worn out in spring or early summer, and become a beautiful scenery in other people's cameras.

(3) Emerald green is a bright and bold color. When matching items, you can choose a slightly low-key color

(4) We should have no objection to the dark green with strong color! Dark green floral skirt is the feeling of spring.
