

Year End Tax Planning Tips For Small Business Owners

Year-end tax planning tips for small-business owners include maximizing deductions by purchasing necessary equipment, contributing to retirement accounts, reviewing estimated tax payments, and considering strategic expenses before year-end. Evaluate eligibility for Section 179 expensing and bonus depreciation for asset purchases. Consult with a tax advisor offering services of small business tax planning in Fort Worth TX to optimize your tax strategy based on your business's financial position and goals.

