Where to Stay in Zagreb Croatia

Croatia has been a popular tourist destination for several years, and more and more travelers want to explore Zagreb , a city that is both modern and historic, which has many surprises in store. It is also one of the safest destinations in Europe .

If you are also planning a trip to Zagreb, then you are probably looking for the place where you will settle down during your stay or for just a few nights if you are going on a road trip to Croatia . This is good, since in this post, I will tell you about the best places to sleep in Zagreb .

I will take you to discover the most pleasant and welcoming neighborhoods of the Croatian capital, those where you will be perfectly located to make many discoveries in and around the city. To make your stay in Zagreb a success, I will also show you some examples of comfortable establishments, where you will be warmly welcomed.

How to choose the best place to stay in Zagreb?

Even though Zagreb is the largest city in the country, it is also what we call a capital on a human scale. Here, where you choose to stay will mainly depend on the type of trip you plan to do.

The historic district of Zagreb ( Gornji Grad ) and the Kaptol district will often be the best choice for travelers who are discovering the city for the first time and want to do numerous cultural visits. Some neighborhoods like Maksimir will be better suited to people traveling as a couple or family, and others like Jarun will be wiser choices for those who mostly want to party until very late at night.

Gornji Grad, the historic center

This historic district in the center of Zagreb stands on the hill of the same name. It is also sometimes called the “upper town”. When visiting Zagreb, it is one of the must-see places, and without a doubt one of the most pleasant areas where you can set down your suitcases.

Gornji Grad is home to Jelačić Square, the most important and certainly the most beautiful square in Zagreb. Here you can also discover iconic monuments and sites such as the Church of Saint Mark , a superb 13th century building, the Lotrščak Tower , the Hrvatsko narodno kazalište National Theater or the Mirogoj cemetery , where some of the greatest personalities rest. from the country.

On the streets of this district you can see many beautiful buildings with typical Austro-Hungarian architecture. You will have the opportunity to take very beautiful walks, notably in the magnificent Zrinjevac Park , or by discovering the Zagreb Botanical Garden.

In terms of accommodation, there are quite a few, but in the historic parts of the capital, you can mainly find guest rooms. If you want to access hotels or even youth hostels, you will have to book even earlier, otherwise you risk not finding a free room.
