

Embryo Cryopreservation Process

Embryo cryopreservation involves fertilizing eggs, freezing embryos using vitrification, and storing them for future IVF. This advanced process ensures high survival rates and is a trusted option for delaying pregnancy while preserving fertility.