

MRCP Part 1 Exam 2024: Countdown Starts

The MRCP Part 1 exam for 2024 is approaching, and candidates are in the final stages of preparation. Registration for the August exam closed on June 10. With only a few weeks remaining, candidates are wrapping up their study efforts.

What is the MRCP Exam?

The MRCP is a prestigious three-part examination administered by the Royal College of Physicians, designed to assess both theoretical knowledge and clinical skills. It is a key qualification for those seeking medical licensure in the UK.

Eligibility Criteria

eligibility To sit for the MRCP Part 1 exam, candidates must hold a medical degree from a university recognized by the GMC (General Medical Council) and have at least one year of post-graduate experience. This exam offers an excellent opportunity for medical professionals looking to advance their careers internationally.

Important MRCP Exam Dates

Registration for the MRCP Part 1 exam opened on July 3 and closed on June 10 for the third exam of 2024. The exam will take place on August 14, 2024, with results announced on September 13.

Plan your study sessions carefully and keep the exam date in mind. Effective preparation strategies, disciplined study, and targeted learning can significantly impact your success.

Exam Format and Next Steps

The MRCP Part 1 exam comprises two sessions, each featuring 100 multiple-choice questions in a best-of-five format. The total exam duration is six hours, divided equally between the two sessions on the same day.

Only candidates who pass the MRCP Part 1 are eligible to advance to the subsequent stages of the MRCP examination, paving the way for a distinguished medical career. if you are preparing MRCP Part 1 and MRCP Part 2 Written Courses. Connect with us