

Ferdinand Berthier The Life and Legacy of a Renowned French General

Ferdinand Berthier The Life and Legacy of a Renowned French General Ferdinand Berthier (born September 30, 1803, in Louhans, Saône-et-Loire, France) was a prominent figure in the Deaf rights movement. He is well-known for his contributions to education for the Deaf and his Ferdinand-Berthier intellectual and political work.

