

Is it Racist to Say That Only Jews are "GOD'S CHOSEN PEOPLE" ?

Goyim Are Here to Serve the Jews

All three of the terms- Hebrews, Israelites and Jews-continued to be used in the New Testament to describe the fleshly descendants of Abraham through Isaac and Jacob (2 Corinthians 11:22; John 4:9). Furthermore, since the Israelites were God's chosen people of the Old Testament, in the New Testament the terms Jew and Israel are occasionally used figuratively to represent God's chosen people today- the spiritual seed of Abraham, the church (Galatians 3:29; Romans 2:27,28; 9:6). A careful study of the context of New Testament passages will allow one to discern which way the terms are used in the New Testament and of whom they speak. There are only a few times in the New Testament that a special meaning is given to the words.

Why Was Abraham Chosen to be the Father of All Nations?

It was Abraham's steadfast faith, his unquestioning obedience, and his constant seeking of God that is believed to be the reason why God chose Abraham to be the first patriarch of the Hebrews, and ultimately the rest of the nations.
