God called those ravenous birds...

8 Remember this, and shew yourselves men: bring it again to mind, O ye transgressors.

9 Remember the former things of old: for I am God, and there is none else; I am God, and there is none like me,

10 Declaring the end from the beginning, and from ancient times the things that are not yet done, saying, My counsel shall stand, and I will do all my pleasure:

11 Calling a ravenous bird from the east, the man that executeth my counsel from a far country: yea, I have spoken it, I will also bring it to pass; I have purposed it, I will also do it.

12 Hearken unto me, ye stouthearted, that are far from righteousness:

13 I bring near my righteousness; it shall not be far off, and my salvation shall not tarry: and I will place salvation in Zion for Israel my glory.

47 Come down, and sit in the dust, O virgin daughter of Babylon, sit on the ground: there is no throne, O daughter of the Chaldeans: for thou shalt no more be called

Re: Why a Duck ?

I saw this USA Today article about the 100,000 ducks...

I felt bad for the ducks, and for the farmer.

At first, I considered ways of saving the ducks...

Then, I considered that God must have a reason for this event.

I pulled out my KJV Bible, and opened it.
Page 586 and 587...*

Isaiah 44:16-47:6

It's about the call of Cyrus,
the Persian King who returned the captive Israelites to Judah...

Specifically, 46:11

Calling a ravenous bird from the east, the man that executeth my counsel from a far country: yea, I have spoken it, I will also bring it to pass; I have purposed it, I will also do it.

This is a Simult.

God knows, and we don't.
