The Beat is a copyrighted composition and master recording created by the Seller, who warrants that it contains only sounds created by the Seller or properly licensed to the Seller, and contains no samples that require third-party copyright clearance or licensing. The document is an exclusive beat license agreement between a producer (NAME) and an artist (Artist NAME). It grants the artist exclusive rights to use specified beats for a set payment. The artist can use the beats commercially but cannot resell, remix, or transfer the rights without permission.
