

NGOs Redefining Gender Roles in India's Workforce Landscape

Embark on a journey of empowerment with NGOs leading the charge to increase female labor force participation in India. Through innovative strategies and targeted interventions, these organizations are creating pathways for women to access meaningful employment opportunities and contribute to the country's economic growth.

