Stadio San Siro (Stadio Giuseppe Meazza), located in Milan, Italy, has been deprived of the right to host the UEFA Champions League final in the 2026-2027 season.

According to ESPN, a sports media outlet, on the morning of the 25th (Korea time), UEFA decided to change the venue for the 2026-2027 UEFA Champions League final to be held in June 2027 at a meeting of the executive committee on the 24th. UEFA initially confirmed Stadio San Siro's hosting of the 2026-2027 UEFA Champions League final, putting a condition on the Italian Football Association to submit information on the multi-million pound Stadio San Siro conversion plan. However, the Italian Football Association failed to comply with UEFA's requirements, which ultimately led to UEFA reversing the decision.

UEFA explained in a statement that "Milano City has decided to withdraw Milan's hosting of the final and proceed with the bidding process to designate an appropriate stadium because it does not guarantee that Stadio San Siro and the surrounding environment will not be affected by renovations during the 2027 UEFA Champions League final."
