

Best Practices For GMB Listing When Relocating Your Business

Two common problems that you may encounter are duplicate Google listings and an old or inactive business having an active GMB listing at your new location. However, you can solve these problems by reaching out to a reputable local citation building service.