

Transforming Urban Infrastructure for Poverty Reduction

Equity in Action signifies a commitment to justice and fairness in urban development, ensuring that all residents have access to essential services and opportunities regardless of their socioeconomic status. In many cities, infrastructure projects have historically favored affluent neighborhoods, leaving marginalized communities without access to clean water, sanitation, transportation, and other basic amenities.

