

Lee Kang-in shocked 3 points in rating → Minimum rating with Mbappe

Paris Saint-Germain (PSG), where Lee Kang-in started, had a difficult draw against Rennes. PSG drew 1-1 in the 23rd round of the 2023-24 French League 1 against Rennes in Paris, France, on the 26th. Lee Kang-in started the game and played for 45 minutes, and has started in two consecutive games since his return to the Asian Cup. PSG is 11 points ahead of second-place Brest (43 points), while leading the league with 16 wins, 6 draws and 1 loss (54 points).

In PSG, Mbappe played as a striker against Rennes, and Barcola and Dembele led the side attack. Lee Kang-in, Luis, and Vitinha formed the midfield, while Hernandez, Veraldo, Pereira and Hakimi took charge of the defense. Donnarumma defended the goal.

In a showdown between the two teams, Guiri scored the first goal for Ren in the 33rd minute of the first half. Guiri dribbled through alone among PSG's defense and shook the net with his right footed shot from the front of the penalty area.

After searching through the first half, PSG deployed Asensio instead of Lee Kang-in at the start of the second half. Then, in the 20th minute of the second half, Mbappe and Barcola were excluded, and Hamus and Muani were fielded to change the strikers. PSG coach Luis Enrique continued to replace players by fielding Emery and Mendes instead of Demberell and Hernandez in the 26th minute of the second half.

Later, PSG scored a dramatic penalty equalizer in the extra time of the second half. Hamus, who was breaking through the right side of the penalty area, tripped over Ren goalkeeper Mandanda and the referee declared a penalty. Hamus, the kicker, shook the net with a right-footed shot, and PSG finished the game in a draw.

Lee Kang-in played for 45 minutes in the first half of the match against Rennes, recording a pass success rate of 88% with 38 cheek touches. He competed for the ball six times and won three times, and never tried to break through a dribble. Lee Kang-in, who suffered two dribble breaks in Rennes, also lost possession of the ball six times.

French media 90min gave Lee Kang-in three points for his performance against Rennes. The media said, "Lee Kang-in, who started in two consecutive games since his return to the Asian Cup, played intensely as usual. Lee Kang-in was aggressive, but he missed the ball and allowed Ren space." Coach Luis Enrique mentioned that he made the decision to replace Lee Kang-in for a quick response.

Along with Lee Kang-in, Mbappe recorded the lowest rating in the team with three points. PSG, which notified PSG of its breakup with the inability to renew the contract, returned to the starting lineup after three games in League 1. The 90min mentioned, "Mbappe lacked efficiency in the front and left the stadium with the whistle of the audience."

Most of the PSG players tied with Ren scored poorly. Asensio, who replaced Lee Kang-in, scored four points. Among the players who started for PSG, Dembele, Vitinha and Hernandez scored the highest six points. 바카라사이트 추천
