

Advice on how to get ready for the festive season and fulfilment

The Indian Festive Season spans the months of September through December and includes traditional celebrations like Diwali, Christmas, and Eid. The holiday season is renowned for its fervour for shopping, with individuals buying anything from luxury items to daily necessities.