

Scrum Master Mentorship Program

Scrum is an agile framework specifically designed for complex product development in the IT industry. Scrum provide a structured approach to project management that emphasizes iterative progress, team collaboration, and customer value delivery. The framework breaks down large projects into manageable sprints, typically lasting two to four weeks, allowing teams to deliver working software incrementally.