

Exporting Supplements to India: Opportunities and Challenges

To export supplements to India, an establishment must be registered on the registration list of food manufacturers who have permission to export their food supplements to India. The Food Safety and Standards Authority of India (FSSAI) regulates the above list.

Read More: Exporting Supplements to India: Opportunities and Challenges