Teaching follows a natural rhythm. Our teacher editions structure lessons according to our teaching cycle to embrace and use that rhythm. The teaching cycle follows four phases: Engage, Instruct, Apply, Assess. Throughout each phase, we include carefully crafted and researched teaching strategies. Below is a list of 49 instructional strategies, or approaches, that have been adapted with the working groups of the Washoe County School District. What follows the list is some explanation of each strategy/approach, along with related strategies/approaches where applicable.

1. Academic vocabulary and language Learning centers
2. Definition Strategies to Positively Impact Teaching and Learning.

The High Impact Teaching Strategies (HITS) are 10 instructional practices that have been extensively researched by experts such as John Hattie and Robert Marzano. These practices have been proven to reliably increase student learning.
