

Latest faux Georgette Saree For Women

With the demand for newer designs and prints on the rise, it's quite a challenge for designers to choose the right fabric that can support their creative ideas. This is where Georgette fabrics can pretty much replace all other fabrics with their versatile properties. They can support almost every print, colour and are quite durable.

picture courtesy :Cbazaar

These fabrics are named Georgette after a French designer, They were originally made from pure silk. The yarns are twisted to make them strong and lend a net like finish. They are highly durable, tear-resistant and at the same time are quite light on the skin. Read on to know more about them and check out some of the new Faux Georgette saree designs.

picture courtesy :Cbazaar

Latest faux Georgette saree Designs Online :

Pastels are ruling the fashion world this season and this faux georgette is sure to get you some real following from your fans. The sober saree has an unspoken grace and elegance in it. A creative touch is added to this saree with a metallic multi-colored border. You can pair this with a beige blouse to steal the show. Green and violet are the main colors of this designer georgette saree.

picture courtesy :Cbazaar

This saree is of high quality and great finishing. You can opt for this as party wear. The semi-transparent or translucent texture looks great in you. The works are done in golden and violet along the borders and some traditional designs are being done on the edge of the pallu. This saree does not include intricate works. So if you prefer simple sarees you can choose this piece of saree for an appealing look.

picture courtesy :Cbazaar

Pure green coloured Faux georgette saree is paired up with silver lining. Simplicity is the key feature of this saree. The silver border has a lustrous effect on this saree. Women with fair complexion can opt for this piece without any doubt. check out this collection.