

Sanford Coyote Sports Center Plastic Bag Policy

The Sanford Coyote Sports Center is implementing a new bag policy, requiring fans to use see-through tote bags for all events at the Dakota Dome and the Sports Center itself. This bag policy aims to enhance security and ensure a safe and enjoyable experience for all attendees.

You can bring one clear stadium bag according to the new rules. Acceptable bags include plastic, vinyl, or PVC bags that do not exceed 12 inches by 6 inches by 12 inches, or a one-gallon plastic freezer bag (like a Ziploc). Guests may also carry a small clutch, about the size of a hand, with or without a handle or strap, as long as it's no bigger than 4.5 by 6.5 inches. Bags with chain straps are not allowed.

All fans and their belongings will be subject to inspection at stadium entrances. Attendees are encouraged to arrive early to allow extra time for security checks. Expect entry to begin an hour before events at the Sanford Coyote Sports Center and 1.5 hours before Coyote football games at the DakotaDome. Exceptions will be made for legitimate medical needs. Medical bags and equipment may be inspected at the gate.

Prohibited items include security purses larger than a clutch bag, backpacks, coolers, solid drawstring bags, camera bags, computer bags and any bags larger than 12" x 6" x 12".

If your bag doesn't follow the new clear bag policy, the venue may ask you to take it back to your car.
