

Intel Drop #43 - The Cosmic Rules Are About To Change (Part 4)

"It alters our DNA, it spreads to every part of the body, including our bones. It even mimics the behaviour of a parasite, so the body defends it, and attacks anything that would harm the nano dust itself."

Intel Drop #43

The following was collated from a few wide-ranging conversations covering many topics. As always, these conversations are edited by Michael for clarity and for obfuscation purposes (see: Stylometry):

Bill: We've had a lot of conversations the past week, and I personally think this Intel Drop will upset some people. Do you still want to go ahead with this?

Gideon: "I do."

Bill: Ok. Before we get into the spiritual issues, I want to go over a few things. In our last Intel Drop, we talked about this person who got intel from one of the Davos attendees. What's the status on that intel? Do you still think it's legitimate?

Gideon: "I believe it is."

Bill: The big thing was the dates, the timeline this guy had confessed to, is that right?

Gideon: "Correct."

Bill: Can you give us any idea what that is? Maybe not specific dates, just an idea of what's coming.

Gideon: "He gave specific dates for this year and next year, and 2026 and 2030. We now believe we have these crucial dates in our possession, but releasing them would bring us immediate escalation."

Bill: I get it. As long as we internally have it, that's going to help us.

Gideon: "It will. I will be providing Michael with major updates for our team in the next month, including a plan of action, so everyone can be ready when these dates arrive."

Bill: Will you tell our team the dates, specifically?

Gideon: "I intend to, but we will need back-up comms in place first, in case the cabal takes down our accounts, which remain vulnerable."

Bill: Ok, let's talk briefly about the agent who infiltrated our team project. What's the status on that?

Gideon: "We suspected they were an agent, so we provided them with false info. They then contacted us and exposed to us that they were an agent, because they made an issue about this false info we provided."

Bill: So the plan worked, to root them out?

Gideon: "Yes."

Bill: Is this person a low level or high level agent?

Gideon: "Likely mid-level, and possibly seeking Sovereign status by continuing to attack us. Or, they are vaccinated and controlled or influenced, either by entities or other agents."

Bill: If people want to know more, they can read about it on our Telegram. We dealt with this last year, I guess they won't go away.

Gideon: "No, Bill, they will not stop, and probably not until the cabal gives them their Sovereign reward. There are a number of agents who do not have Sovereign status, and they are working very hard right now to gain it."

Bill: In what other capacities? Against us, or in other ways?

Gideon: "Everywhere, Bill. There are agents who have infiltrated all alternative media and patriotic groups. Their agenda is to distract, disrupt, discredit, provide disinfo, lie, cheat, steal and even attempt to make money in preparation to acquire USDR."

Bill: They would need Sovereign status to get USDR, though, right?

Gideon: "That is correct. They are planning to gain it, through whatever work they are doing for the cabal. I understand not all agents will receive Sovereign status, so there is a sort of competition among all agents, whether low, mid or high level. This kind of motivation and competition only serves the cabal, and gives agents impetus to work even harder to push these agendas."

Bill: Who are these agents, by the way? What kind of person does this kind of nasty work?

Gideon: "The cabal is very good at profiling certain people, usually more Left-oriented in their political thinking, but not always. Sometimes there is a background of drug abuse, paedophilia, and more often a background working with political groups to push certain agendas."

These individuals are then approached and sign-on to cabal contracts to carry out their work. My understanding is that most agents were told about Obsidian, USDR and Sovereign status over the past three years, so they are very ware of what is to come."

Bill: Ok, thank you for explaining that. You told me something the whistle blowers said is going on with the Obsidian software. It's pretty serious, but it's not actually directed at us. Can you speak on that briefly?

Gideon: "Yes, the cabal is making changes in Obsidian. We will tell our team about it. It only indirectly impacts us, because it has to do with other Sovereigns within the cabal who are breaking cabal rules. It also has to do with some high-level Sovereigns who demanded changes be made to the software."

Bill: Are the changes good or bad for us, for our team?

Gideon: "They are generally positive. The cabal Sovereigns would not ask or demand changes that would negatively impact them. So as a result, we will indirectly benefit, overall."

Bill: Ok, we'll move on to some other topics now. There's news I want to go over, but I'll save it for the end of this Intel Drop. We want this Intel Drop to be focused on the big, spiritual questions, like our other Cosmic Rules Are About To Change series [see the bottom of Intel Drop for links to those specific Intel Drops].

Gideon: "Let us proceed."

Bill: I'll start with the overall picture from a spiritual perspective. How much has changed since we posted Part 3?

Gideon: "A lot has changed. I understand a lot more now, much more."

Bill: You told me your guide has been instrumental in providing you a clearer picture of what's going on, is that right?

Gideon: "Yes, many recent discussions with them have given me deep insight into the cabal's plans, and how all of this will play out, and the bigger questions at hand."

Bill: What has your guide said about the nano dust?

Gideon: "That it is real and already deployed."

Bill: Did they say if there was any natural detox available to get it out?

Gideon: "They said there is none. The cabal specifically designed the nano dust so that nothing on the market can remove it, particularly natural remedies."

Bill: What did they do to make it so hard to remove, to get out?

Gideon: "The nano dust goes into every part of the body, and even fuses with our cells and then replicates new cells with the nano technology within them. It alters our DNA, it spreads to every part of the body, including our bones. It even mimics the behaviour of a parasite, so the body defends it, and attacks anything that would harm the nano dust itself."

Bill: Does it have any detrimental health effects?

Gideon: "No, but once it is activated there are expected to be side-effects of some kind when that happens."

Bill: How is it activated?

Gideon: "With Starlink, and we believe Wifi and cell technology may also activate it, but Starlink itself is the command and control centre, so to speak."

Bill: There's a major post on 4Chan that seems to reflect a lot of what we've said about the nano dust, but in a different way, it talks more about the vaccines. What are your thoughts on that post?

Gideon: "I believe it is a well-meaning individual who released important information, but it is certainly not the full picture."

Bill: Why do you say that?

Gideon: "He is describing the nano dust in detail, but connecting it only to the vaccines, and not the food supply. He is implying only those who were vaccinated received it. That is not true. The vaccines also had a different purpose than he seems to understand."

His posts appear to be a mixture of truth and disinfo. It may be a distraction, so that people focus back on the vaccines, rather than the nano dust already in the food supply. It could even be a response by the cabal to what we have released."

Bill: Got it. I felt like it was a pretty profound confirmation, though, and we see those come in everyday.

Gideon: "It is, in a certain respect. The posts are detailed and compelling."

Bill: So, we've established we can't get the nano dust out easily or even at all. How does the antidote work?

Gideon: "My guide said the antidote is an extremely advanced chemical compound containing some nano tech that signals all of the nano dust to self-destruct, and in other cases, vacate the body. It also signals cells with altered DNA to die-off. The body then replaces those cells with natural cells. The antidote takes about one week to complete its work, and four weeks for the nano dust to be completely shed from the body. There are no negative side-effects. Positive side-effects will include better mental clarity and better sleep at night."

Bill: Did you ask for the ingredients? Could we replicate it in a lab, so we can get it out to people?

Gideon: "I did. They know of some ingredients, but not the entire recipe, so to speak. They said there is not remotely enough time to contact a lab, let alone find one that would work with us."

We also have a very limited ability to disperse the antidote even if we could manufacture it. It is not feasible, nor is there any time, nor did my guide believe even enough people would believe us or even take it."

Bill: That's true, only a few thousand people even read the Intel Drops. There's not time at all, I get it. Could we at least release some kind of recipe or the ingredients of the antidote, so people have it?

Gideon: "I also asked that. My guide said if we released even a small part or a synopsis of the ingredients, the cabal would simply escalate us and remove all of our information.

My guide said our team is far more important to preserve and keep safe, than risk everything by releasing some ingredients that most would not even believe to begin with, and most would have no ability to manufacture. You have to realize, Bill, a lab needed to manufacture it would not even work with us, as many are linked to the cabal."

Bill: Is the antidote safe?

Gideon: "Yes. It is designed to save cabal members and rid their bodies of this nano dust. They would not ingest something unsafe, and they desire for it to work. Ironically, our team benefits from this out of the cabal's own desire for self-preservation, since we will receive the antidote as well."

Bill: I don't want to get sidetracked here, but there was a whistle blower post on GLP that described someone getting 'vials', like an antidote, and other things that sound like Obsidian. I sent it to you and you told me you read it, what did you think of it?

Gideon: "The fact that the person who wrote it used the term 'vials' is very interesting because I have heard that exact, specific term connected to the antidote as well. I saw the person was also attacked throughout the thread by agents. So, it is compelling, but difficult to reach conclusions as to its veracity. It is also possible an agent posted it, for whatever agenda that may be."

Bill: I see. Back to the subject at hand. So we're clear, the cabal absolutely doesn't want the nano dust in them when it's activated, right?

Gideon: "Absolutely not. It is only in them because keeping a safe food list, as we originally reported, was not feasible. It would restrict their ability to deploy it, so this alternative was decided upon."

Bill: Was there ever a safe food list? Was that disinfo?

Gideon: "We believe there was. We believe the whistle blowers had seen early, possibly prototype memos on this program, and simply assumed that is how it would be deployed. It turns out the cabal decided against a safe food list, and instead developed an antidote."

Bill: Ok, I'm going to ask more technical questions about the nano dust and how it works later, but from a spiritual standpoint, what does your guide think of all this? Because to me, this is violating people's free will.

Gideon: "Yes, I have talked about this with them. It goes back to what we spoke about in the past, about how these rules have changed. The cabal has made the argument, it seems, that people have already consented to the cabal's evil by continuing to pay taxes and do nothing to revolt or resist them. The cabal believes our souls are already compromised, so they can do what they want to us. They believe we have given them permission to do this."

Bill: What about the people who resisted the vaccine? How could they be considered consenting to any of this?

Gideon: "Again, the cabal believes everyone is compromised at this point. That there has been no revolt, no resistance, nothing. People pay their taxes and fund the cabal. People follow and even seem to worship the cabal's own gatekeepers. The cabal sees this as a tacit endorsement, even if a person resisted the Covid vaccine."

Bill: But people who pay their taxes believe the government is good, even if they are wrong, they just believe the propaganda.

Gideon: "Incorrect, Bill, and this is an important point my guide made to me. The cabal specifically has allowed certain information to be openly, publicly revealed in recent years. This includes facts about the vaccines and about Covid, facts about 9/11, facts about how the cabal works, facts about child trafficking rings, facts about pedophiles running the world's governments, facts surrounding Jeffrey Epstein, facts about the laughably fraudulent 2020 U.S. election. I could go on."

The cabal has chosen not to censor these things, and in some cases, they either promoted it themselves or allowed it to proliferate.

Now, everyone knows these things, even if they do not believe them, they know. So, no one can deny the truth, because the veil has been lifted."

Bill: Amazing. So, people do know, and they do nothing, or they deny it in their own minds, and the cabal sees that as an endorsement?

Gideon: "Yes."

Bill: That reminds me of this video of Taylor Swift at the Super Bowl, and her friend is giving off devil hand signs, wearing Balenciaga, wearing an upside down cross. This was seen by millions, maybe hundreds of millions of people on live television. Is that an example of what you're speaking of?

Gideon: "Yes, absolutely. The evil is not hidden, Bill. I have said that for the past two years. The cabal is not hiding this, for a reason. They had in the past, they had cloaked it behind predictive programming that you had to look carefully for, but this is very different."

Bill: I agree, it's incredible. Here is this pop star young women love, and she's hanging out with some Satanic friends giving off hand signs. She's also pushing the Pfizer vaccine. It's very out in the open. So, if a person sees this and keeps buying her music, or if parents let their kids buy it or listen to it, you're saying it's an endorsement of the cabal?

Gideon: "That is the argument the cabal has made, as to why they can surpass free will and spread the nano dust through the food, and put Starlink in place. They have shown the world the truth, and the world has responded by doing nothing."

Bill: Did your guide say God agrees with the cabal on this?

Gideon: "On this technicality, yes. God believes people have been sufficiently given the truth in recent years, and if they continue to either deny it, or do nothing, or continue to pay taxes to support and fund the cabal, then they are part of it, they endorse it, or they are allowing it. Their free will is accepting it."

Bill: I need a moment to process what you're saying. I just need a break to gather my thoughts, because I have a lot of questions. Can we take a quick break?

Gideon: "Certainly, take your time."

[Conversation resumes.]

Bill: Ok, I put down some notes here. I really want to get this right, because what you're saying is really going to challenge a lot of things we accept as truth. People will not like this or agree with you, at all.

Gideon: "I understand that. People should know that I am not saying this, this is what my guide told me."

Bill: And you trust your guide completely, right?

Gideon: "I would trust them with the lives of my children, I would trust them with my own life. So, yes, I do, completely."

Bill: There's people who won't believe us, and still don't believe the whistle blowers, but we've shown so many countless confirmations, and we've shown proofs, we've also been relentlessly attacked. If a person denies Obsidian and denies us, would that be something your guide would say is a type of permission to the cabal? Do you understand my question?

Gideon: "I do. I cannot speak for my guide. I can only speak for myself. I would say if a person did not believe our intel, it would be a grave mistake on their part, but not a point of giving the cabal permission over their free will. That is because our information has not be disseminated widely enough, but other information has."

Bill: Tons of people still resist the cabal, it seems like, and tons of people are awake and aware. How could the cabal be allowed to put nano dust in the food supply and violate those people?

Gideon: "It appears God has allowed it. The argument is that those people continue to do nothing, continue to pay taxes, continue to likely buy products from cabal-run companies, and worst of all, continue to believe or follow cabal gate-keepers. The final point may be the most important, the linchpin that gave the cabal full permission to do this."

Bill: Ok, I see. That last point hits home. So many of these so-called patriots and awake people do follow gate-keepers. So that's something the cabal has argued, then? They must say, 'All of these people follow our people.' Is that right?

Gideon: "That is correct."

Bill: This brings me to the David Icke interview on Alex Jones. I was blown away by how David put everything together. It makes me wonder if he reads our Intel Drops, he was almost speaking as if he was reading them! Or, maybe he's just very much tapped into the truth. Did you watch it?

Gideon: "Yes, I was able to view it before we spoke."

Bill: What do you think about what he said about X, or Twitter, how he said it's basically a big gate-keeping move by Elon Musk and the cabal to bring in the truth community? I thought that was spot on, it goes to what you are saying, how the so-called resistance is literally following the cabal's own leaders.

Gideon: "That is precisely correct, precisely the argument the cabal has made. How can someone claim to be free of mind, resistant to the cabal, in opposition to Agenda 2030, in opposition to the New World Order, if they follow and trust agents of the cabal? They cannot be. This is the argument."

Bill: The implications here are going to upset people, because it sounds like God, our Creator, signed off on this.

Gideon: "It should not be looked at as though God supports any of this, Bill, or agrees with it. God is saddened by it, and concerned, to see his own creation essentially walking right into Hell, even willingly. That is why our group exists. God would not leave his creation without an exit strategy, or without a defence, or without a way to stop this. We are an essential part of that."

Bill: I know the answer to this, but do you think we are divinely protected? We've been attacked, shadow-banned, censored, but we're still here. The cabal could probably shut us down, but they haven't.

Gideon: "Yes, we are divinely protected."

Bill: Does the cabal know that?

Gideon: "In a round-about way, I think they do. But the cabal is blinded by their own biases. As I have said so many times, they believe our entire group will be compromised by the luxuries and safety of Sovereign status, once Obsidian is activated, and that we will do nothing to really fight it or try to destroy it. We will be too comfortable, we will not want to give up what we have, or even give up our USDR."

The cabal would take great reward, great pleasure in seeing that happen, so they have allowed us to exist for that reason, and instead they used other tactics to keep our information from getting out."

Bill: The cabal will be wrong, they'll find out the hard way.

Gideon: "I think they will, too. I know they will."

Bill: I want to ask what will happen after the nano dust is activated, what's the plan there?

Gideon: "Before we get to that, I want to speak a bit more about the Alex Jones interview, something else needs to be said about that."

Bill: Sure, go ahead.

Gideon: "An individual joined the call about half way through the interview with David Icke, someone named Adrian Dittmann. This is believed to be an AI voice of Elon Musk. Alex Jones, at many points, suggested it was Musk himself.

Those who will read this Intel Drop need to understand this was staged, and set up this way. It was completely scripted. It appears David Icke was not involved at all, but Alex Jones was."

Bill: What was the point of it?

Gideon: "To insert Musk's arguments for AI and trans-humanism, to push back against David and even Alex Jones, even though Alex Jones knew what was going on. Musk's arguments, or this AI version of him, were quite well thought-out, and well-presented, well-reasoned. I do not agree with them at all, but that was the point. You will see more of this, more arguments as to why AI and trans-humanism is good for us. It is programming, brainwashing, and Alex Jones was involved, because we already know he is a Sovereign."

Bill: Yes, I remember, I listened to the whole thing, and this Dittman guy talked a lot. It sounds just like Musk. I looked into that a little, and it does look like an AI version of him, and it sounds very real, but he claims he's a real person who just sounds like Musk. In any case, why wouldn't Musk just call in?

Gideon: "Plausible deniability, as Alex Jones himself noted. Musk probably wants to distance himself from Jones, but still wants to reach his audience. It was all very-well cloaked."

Bill: So more and more things are being staged, that seem real? I mean, things that seem like a push-back against the agenda are really the cabal staging those things.

Gideon: "Yes, such as the Tucker Carlson interview with Putin."

Bill: What was the agenda there?

Gideon: "To actually bring some people in the West toward accepting Putin more. The problem is that Putin supports the WEF agenda. Putin is not a friend to humanity or freedom. We may see a shift in the narrative against him, and if so, it is only to serve the cabal, under the guise of a Right-wing resurgence.

Those on the Right, those who might consider themselves patriots, are at risk of getting caught up in a major psy op. If they somehow put Trump back into office, that psy op would then be complete, and the patriotic groups fully captured."

Bill: Everything you're saying here is really interesting from the political perspective, and I think you're right about all of it, it's extremely important to understand, but I want to get back to the spiritual questions, if you don't mind?

Gideon: "I do not mind at all."

Bill: What's going to happen when the nano dust is activated? I want to ask about the spiritual aspect, but first how will it physically impact us?

Gideon: "My guide said once it is activated, it will act as a tracking device and connect to CSRQ, or Obsidian. Your bank account balance, or USDR at that time, your job, your medical records, all of it will be transmitted to the cloud non-stop, even your own heart rate and bio-data. Starlink is this 'cloud' of data processing and connection, which is then stored in a variety of satellites in low Earth orbit. We also believe parts of Obsidian will be stored there, or operated there. Starlink will also interact with your body and influence your thoughts and behaviour.

One thing that David Icke noted, which you also noted in your Tweet about this, is that Neuralink is a distraction. This is profoundly true. Neuralink is a primitive technology by cabal standards, but it is put out into the public to make the public believe this is the latest technology. They do not want people to know there is nano dust in the food or the vaccines, and that it works effortlessly because the technology has advanced that far.

Ultimately, to answer the spiritual question, the purpose of Starlink and the nano dust is so that our souls, after death, cannot escape or ascend the Earthly realm."

Bill: I have to stop you here, why space?

Gideon: "Because it provides the ultimate surveillance control grid, virtually impossible to escape from, except for living underground. It is also very difficult to destroy, while cell towers and Wifi on the ground can be destroyed and are susceptible to power outages."

Bill: Got it. Continue, about what happens when it's activated, maybe about the side-effects?

Gideon: "Some people are expected to die, especially anyone with a heart condition, they will die. My guide said up to 2% of Earth's population will die the day it is activated, and more as the days pass, due to the electromagnetic effects of the activation. The cabal is unconcerned about this."

Bill: What about the vaccinated, won't they be at high risk?

Gideon: "They will be, but they were more of a group of test subjects, to install this nano technology and see how it works. The test is done, and it works, and it was then put into the food supply once they determined that."

Bill: It sounds like the vaccine is not remotely what we thought it was, which was a depopulation method.

Gideon: "It was, and it was not. Many died, and many more will still die once the nano dust is activated. The cabal desires those deaths, for other reasons we touched on in previous Intel Drops relating to this subject, their souls now belong to the cabal in the astral plane, and they are needed there for a war being fought there."

One thing we were right about, though, was that the cabal wants to keep certain types of people alive on this Earth. They do not want to kill us, unless we pose a threat. My guide continued to confirm this agenda."

Bill: Right, that's really an amazing thing that had come out of our previous discussions. It's not the depopulation agenda people think at all. They actually want the patriots and truth-seekers kept alive.

Gideon: "They do, and essentially infected with the nano dust, activated and connected to this Starlink grid. This then extends to deeper questions about the soul, capturing the soul, that is the deepest part of the agenda."

Bill: It feels like this is confirming the older Intel Drops. It's different, but it's still confirming them.

Gideon: "It is. It is just greater understanding now."

Bill: Will Obsidian and this activation happen at the same time?

Gideon: "Obsidian will be activated before the nano dust is activated. Sovereigns will then receive the antidote, take it, and possibly one or two months later, the activation will occur."

Bill: This is the Mark of the Beast, it has to be.

Gideon: "I think you could make that argument, very strongly, that it is."

Bill: We had a lengthy discussion about Christians two weeks ago, which led to a series of things happening, should we get into that?

Gideon: "We should."

Bill: This stuff really shook me. You said it was a key point for the cabal to capture Christians, especially those saved by the blood of Christ. How could they possibly do that?

Gideon: "By compromising the church, and by extension of that, allowing Christians the opportunity to either give up their salvation or compromise it, which they have."

Bill: How many have?

Gideon: "Hundreds of millions, over the past twenty years."

Bill: Does this have to do with all the alterations and changes to the Bible?

Gideon: "In part, yes, and by extension of that, the fact that so few pastors and so few parishioners bothered to notice their Bibles had been changed. They were not even reading them, Bill, or paying any attention to all of the altered scriptures. This was a demonic ritual performed by the cabal, and the test was if Christians would notice, and they did not."

Bill: Well, a few did. We did. We've talked about it a lot, the changes to the Bible.

Gideon: "It is incredibly few. It is maybe a few thousand Christians out of hundreds of millions. My guide said the Lord sees this, and He cries for his creation."

Bill: They don't even read it, then. The pastors say nothing. They go to church, they recite scripture altered in this demonic way. Is that how they let Satan in, reading things in the Bible that were changed?

Gideon: "In a respect, yes, they opened a door, without questioning any of it. They read false scriptures, scriptures they must have known were not the same, but they ignored it."

Bill: That's not the only way, though, it's everything, you said the church is corrupted, top to bottom.

Gideon: "It is, and Christians do nothing to fight it, they go along with it. Millions have lost their salvation, and the cabal is now making claim to them."

Bill: Why would God allow this?

Gideon: "God cannot intervene. It is up to the Christian to save their own soul, to exercise that."

Bill: They'll all have the nano dust, they'll get activated, connected to this Starlink grid, and at that point, they have taken the Mark, right?

Gideon: "We all would have by then, yes."

Bill: Not us, not our team, we'll get the antidote before then, right?

Gideon: "We will."

Bill: You're one hundred percent on that?

Gideon: "I am, because if you are Sovereign status in Obsidian, you will get it."

Bill: How will we get it?

Gideon: "Once Obsidian is activated, we will then have access, via the app itself, or our banking apps, to updates within it. Those updates will give us instructions on how to get the antidote, likely at our local pharmacy. We will present our app and it will be given to us."

The process is very simple and direct, so that all 10 million or so Sovereigns can follow it. This will go on over probably a few weeks, before the Starlink activation, to ensure all Sovereigns flush out the nano dust completely."

Bill: Got it. Your guide brought someone to us, can you talk about that person?

Gideon: "Yes. My guide introduced our team to a very holy person, a Christian man from a certain Western U.S. state. This person has a large family, and a large compound, and is prepared for what is coming. They did not consume the nano dust because they grow their own food. They are going to be a very important ally for us, and they have contributed to us in other ways already."

Bill: Can you talk about that?

Gideon: "That will be shared with our team on the password-protected pages, not here."

Bill: Understood. What is this person going to do to help us, in the long term, can you discuss that?

Gideon: "My guide said we need them to fulfill our mission. How that will play out, that is for our team to know, not for this Intel Drop."

Bill: Not all Christians have lost salvation, then?

Gideon: "No, many have not. It is simply the fact the numbers are so staggering who have lost it, but we cannot forget, many good Christians have incredible discernment, and they spotted all of the cabal tricks. Most importantly, they followed scripture, and they will be able to see the changes that were made."

Bill: Those changes were done by CERN, right? I mean, it seems like they even went back in time and changed Bibles.

Gideon: "They did, but they did not change all of them, and many real ones still exist. Those contain the proofs this occurred. For those of us with good memories, who have lived long enough, we know from memory many scriptures were altered. Some are still being altered, in other words, CERN is still making changes."

Bill: How can God allow this?

Gideon: "I do not know, but He has. My guide said the Bible instructs us to use discernment. If Christians had done so, they would have seen those changes, especially the pastors. We must also use discernment in the pastors we follow. Christians did not exercise any in that respect, either. They follow charlatans blindly, even pastors in small churches spew deception."

Bill: What about the Catholic Church, is it a deception? What about Mormonism? What about all of the different denominations?

Gideon: "My guide said salvation is actually found in all of them, despite their inherent corruption. I do not have any further information on them from my guide, however. I have my own personal views, which I will not share here."

Bill: I accept that. We talked about this privately, but I don't think I'm a great Christian. You even told me something, should I share that?

Gideon: "You may, I think I know what you are going to say, so go ahead."

Bill: You told me you're not a great Christian, either. I mean, we make mistakes, we sin. We don't go to church.

Gideon: "This is true, but going to church has nothing to do with salvation, Bill."

Bill: I know, but you know what I mean, I feel like we're not active Christians. We also haven't pushed Christianity at all, through what we have done here. Did your guide say anything about that? I mean, we do have a scripture at the bottom of our website, but we're not actively religious at all in what we do.

Gideon: "My guide said how we have done things is how God wanted it to be done. We are not here to push any kind of religion, Bill. Not Christianity, not at all. This is about Obsidian and the whistle blowers, and stopping it. Our personal views are ours alone."

Bill: Ok, I understand. What about people on our team who might not be Christian, are we alienating them?

Gideon: "I do not believe so, because we do not do anything in an official capacity based on our religious faith."

Bill: Ok, but we're bringing in this Christian man, would that be seen in that way?

Gideon: "What he will do for us, to help us, has nothing to do with his faith, I can say that."

Bill: Well, I'm glad he's Christian and saved, from my own personal opinion. I guess that's ok, right?

Gideon: "Of course. You are allowed to have your own personal views and faith, and so is everyone else on our team."

Bill: What if someone on our team is atheist?

Gideon: "That is not a problem at all. Death will awaken even the most stubborn soul to deeper realities, whether they like it or not."

Bill: I'll just ask this then, do you have to be saved, to be washed in the blood of Christ, to avoid this Mark, this insane, evil system the cabal is setting up?

Gideon: "I do not know, and my guide has not communicated that to me. It appears to avoid the Mark, and Obsidian, you do need the antidote, and furthermore, strong discernment, moral fortitude and desire to reach our Creator in the afterlife, and for your soul to be free from capture by the cabal. Ultimately, it is not my place to judge such a thing."

Bill: Ok, that's really interesting to me, I'm not sure if I want to dig deeper on that or ask some other questions here. You said you're open to answer questions from other people, which I think is a great idea, by the way.

Gideon: "I am."

Bill: We'll set up an email then people can write to to ask you questions, is that OK?

Gideon: "It is."

Bill: Good, because I feel like I always forget something important. I have some memory issues. I don't want to get into it, but I have health problems. For anyone reading, I could use some prayers.

Gideon: "You are in mine, Bill. I know what you are going through and it is not easy. I have recommended excellent natural therapies, so I hope those are working."

Bill: Yes, thank you, I ordered some, but it's all international mail, it's taking time to get here, I hope it works. I want to live long enough to get the antidote, I'm scared about that.

Gideon: "It will not be much longer. The end game is approaching. You will make it."

Bill: I've said this before, part of me wants it to happen now. I want them to activate it, but that's selfish. Why don't they just do it now? What's holding up the cabal?

Gideon: "A variety of technical issues, as well as rituals they want to perform. What is before us is unbelievably technically complex to accomplish. There is also a desire on the part of some Sovereigns for USDR acquisition to continue longer."

Bill: They want more of it, which makes sense to me. The cabal is all about money.

Gideon: "They are. Considering that no other USDR will be minted once it is issued, there is an urgency to get it. If we look closely at economic events and movement of money, we can see the cabal doing very strange things. If you know about USDR, then those things begin to make sense."

Bill: Someone said to me this isn't going to happen, and that Trump will win, and so on. The usual line from the Q Anon people. But you said something interesting, that we are like the episode of The Lone Gunmen before 9/11. I thought you could expand on that here.

Gideon: "Yes, before 9/11, no one would believe terrorists could fly two planes into the Twin Towers, or, at least, no one would believe that would really happen, let alone that the U.S. government and Israel would stage it. It simply would not be believed. It would seem extremely implausible and outlandish."

However, the cabal aired an episode of The Lone Gunmen, a U.S. television show, in which that exact scenario was played out, about six months before 9/11. The information is always made available by the cabal. Before Covid, Event 201 and other indicators were available which showed, clearly, the cabal was planning a pandemic."

Bill: We're a bit like all that, then? We're issuing the warning, and people don't really believe it, or want to believe it. But the cabal is not publishing it, like they did the other things.

Gideon: "No, but they are allowing us to exist, despite some censorship. They want it to be known, but not widely known. So, we are the canary in the coal mine. Few are listening or taking these warnings seriously, at great peril."

Bill: What about the soul aspect of this, talking about capturing souls, or not letting them ascend, or reach God. That's the goal of this?

Gideon: "Part of it. Once trapped in this, even if you die, it is expected somehow the nano dust and Starlink will rewrite the signature of our soul's vibration, marking it in some way, or preventing it from reaching God, or higher realms beyond the lower astral realm."

Bill: You said Starlink will create a grid around the Earth that we can't escape from after death?

Gideon: "For those without the antidote, yes."

Bill: Some people think this grid already exists, that there's some kind of soul trap around the Earth. Some people say it's projected by the Moon. What do you think of those theories?

Gideon: "They are correct, but the grid can be exited and left by souls connected to God. The grid itself is powered, so to speak, by the Earth's magnetic field. The Moon also plays a role. But this structure in place can be bypassed, and many souls go through it, or find a way out. It is only a weak net to entrap weak souls, and lure them back into astral realms controlled by the cabal. Clearly, the agenda here is to enhance it and make it stronger, through Starlink and the nano dust, so that no one can escape even if they want to."

Bill: We had this discussion privately before, and I was surprised to hear you say you agree there is a grid or net already in place. I did some research on it, and it seems like it's fairly well-established and documented, at least as a theory.

Gideon: "Well, as I said, the theory is generally correct."

Bill: What about the theories of David Icke, who says Reptilians control us? Or they power this net and keep us here?

Gideon: "I have no information on that. I would place Reptilians, if such a thing exists, in the overall power structure of the cabal. It is entirely possible the cabal has technology to simply project Reptilian holograms, for the purpose of deception, or appear as them in the astral plane. We do know entities can appear as anything within the lower astral realms, and some souls are deceived if they do not exit the net, or grid, and reach God."

Bill: Now I'm worried no one is going to believe this, but like I said, there's a lot of documentation of this, you just have to look and read. It's not well-publicized, but it's there.

Gideon: "It is not terribly divergent from our previous Cosmic Series Intel Drops. It could sound exotic to some, but it is, in fact, consistent with things I have said previously, consistent with what my guide has told me, and even consistent Biblically."

Bill: I'm in complete agreement with what you're saying, I'm just thinking of outsiders who might read this.

Gideon: "We are not here to please people or tell them what they want to hear. We are here for our team, first and foremost. The Intel Drops are for our team, and for the public, but ultimately, Bill, what matters most is what we post and will be posting on the password-protected pages for our team, going forward."

Bill: I agree completely. Before I forget, what do you think of channellers, or channellings? This is something getting really popular. It's where a person receives a direct line of communication from an entity on the other side, from the after life, or other dimensions. I'm seeing it everywhere.

Gideon: "In virtually every case, you are talking about deceptive, demonic entities pretending to be something, or someone, and spewing total nonsense through the person channelling them. My guide also brought it up, and said it will proliferate more and more, because it is a major deception tool used by the cabal. My guide said as more of the veil is lifted, as more become aware of other dimensions, the afterlife, and as our scientific understanding advances, the cabal will use channellers to vastly increase deceptions about these matters."

Bill: I'm seeing a lot more on simulation theory, too, I'm seeing that everywhere, that we're in a simulation. That life is a simulation. Elon Musk even suggested it. What do you think of that?

Gideon: "We are not in a simulation. It is a misinterpretation of the data. We are in a place that is extremely limited by the laws of nature, that would be the way to view our reality. With that said, the Einsteinian, materialistic understanding of the universe is completely incorrect, and some scientific thinkers are finally questioning it, such as Dr. Donald Hoffman, who is very close to the truth."

Bill: What does your guide say about this?

Gideon: "We have not spoken deeply on this subject itself. More of what we discuss has to do with the battle at hand, and how the cabal is attempting to overtake and control Earth, control the astral realm, and literally take ownership over people's souls. These are the main, distressing subjects that tend to dominate our conversations, and concern my guide the most."

Bill: I know people will ask this, so I'll ask it. There would have to be a way out, beyond the antidote. Is there, in your opinion?

Gideon: "I have asked my guide, and they said no. They said if this is activated, it will alter the vibrational nature of the soul itself and trap it within the realms controlled by the cabal, which are the Earth and the astral realm of the afterlife. They said angels are here to help us fight it. My guide also has told me there is another group like ours, connected to Obsidian, and they are also going to fight this."

Bill: How are they like our group?

Gideon: "Someone working at one of the fusion centres has informed friends of what is coming, and is quietly working with them to prepare to destroy it once it comes online, much like we are. They are not as organized as we are, but they are of good intention and spirit in stopping this."

Bill: Are you in contact with them?

Gideon: "I will not discuss the matter any further."

Bill: It's a relief to know that, at least. Couldn't God just click His fingers and stop the cabal, and make all of this stop?

Gideon: "He could, but He will not. He adheres to all cosmic laws, even if the cabal attempts to break them, He will not."

Bill: My timer went off for our discussion. Do you need to go, or should we continue?

Gideon: "We should bring the conversation to a close now, as I must go soon."

Bill: Ok. How much longer will our team project be open?

Gideon: "No more than one more month or less. It will need to be closed soon, in part because agents continue to attempt to infiltrate it. There is a growing risk if enough get through, we could become compromised. Some even simply want Sovereign status for themselves, but if the cabal finds out an agent abused our team to gain Sovereign status, they will meet a horrible fate, so most just want to infiltrate us and harm us."

Bill: I get it. I'm looking at my notes, and I wanted to mention one more thing. I had someone write me and say we're basically "full of it", and that makes me angry. We've had so many confirmations. Then we've got a supporter who opened a YouTube channel to post our Intel Drops, and they've been hit with constant strikes and had their uploads stopped. Their channel has almost no subscribers and very few views, yet YouTube is clearly monitoring it and censoring it! We posted proof this is happening to their channel.

Gideon: "It certainly suggests the cabal is censoring that person, and if that is true, it would follow that the information itself is true. That may be an exercise in logical deduction beyond the capability of some people who are so heavily brainwashed by the cabal."

Bill: Of course. I don't get it how people can't see that, but I guess you can bring a horse to water but you can't make it drink.

Gideon: "Everyone has a choice, Bill. We must respect and allow them to make that choice, on what they choose to believe."

Bill: It's fine, you're right, I just get frustrated. I really look forward to the questions people will send, I think it will be great for the next Intel Drop, because I feel like I forget things. For those reading, please send any questions you have into Gideon, we will forward them to him.

Gideon: "We are nearing the last of our Intel Drops, Bill, because there is not much time left, so I will commit to answering as many as I can."

Bill: Ok, let's bring this to a close. I hope people read this with an open mind and don't judge too harshly. Would you say you're comfortable with what you've said here?

Gideon: "Yes, I am. I want to impart the best knowledge I have, but I am imperfect, and I can be wrong. If I am wrong, I try to admit it, too. If I need to be corrected, I accept correction. My guide has had to correct me from time to time, too."

The important thing in all of this is our team, protecting our team, and our overall mission, and that is to dismantle CSRQ, or Obsidian. We can do that if we can survive all of this and infiltrate it from within, and resist any temptation to enjoy Sovereign status once it is online. We cannot lose sight of the mission."

Bill: No, we can't. I'm not slightly worried about our team somehow getting too comfortable. We have amazing people with us.

Gideon: "We do."

Bill: Ok, well, this has been a great discussion, thank you for your insights, I really appreciate these talks we have. It's changed my life.

Gideon: "I enjoy it very much, Bill. God bless."

Bill: You too. Goodnight.
