Our Team & Our Mission: Apply to have your Obsidian account changed to Sovereign & join our efforts to destroy Obsidian.

The following was collated from a few wide-ranging conversations covering many topics. As always, all intel sent by Gideon is edited by Michael for clarity and for obfuscation purposes (see: Stylometry):

Bill: It's been an incredible few weeks of events. How have you been?

Gideon: “I have been better.”

Bill: Same here. I have notes, because I don't want to forget anything. There's a lot to cover. Do you have at least an hour this time to get into some of this?

Gideon: “I have set aside enough time, yes, provided our comms remain secure.”

Bill: I wanted to know if you want to impart something you told me, about your friend? To give people an idea of what's happening on your end.

Gideon: “Yes, I can get into that.”

Bill: Your friend is ex-U.K. Intelligence. He's gone through some horrible things, and it ties into something very big the whistle blowers discovered. It's a lot to cover. I'll let you start.

Gideon: “It does tie together, as you say. It is very important because it potentially applies to everyone, in terms of what happened to him. We will have to talk through all of this, from the beginning.”

Bill: Now, your friend is going through this. His wife, children, they're abandoning him. I'll let you explain.

Gideon: “Yes, my friend, as you said, is ex-intel, and he has knowledge. Knowledge of what we discuss and other things. He eventually divulged all of this to his wife, and his children, who are young adults now. He did so carefully, gently, you might say. He was expecting they would accept it, but they did not. They always respected him, trusted him, but with this, they rejected the information and him. There is a divorce proceeding underway. His children became estranged. This has devastated him.”

Bill: Then you both learned more, that this wasn't just a family disagreement, or them rejecting the information?

Gideon: “No, it is more. We learned it is part of a subsystem within Obsidian, one recently discovered by the whistle blowers, one we have not talked about until now.”

Bill: Did he know about Obsidian?

Gideon: “Yes, and he knows much more.”

Bill: So, he told his family about it?

Gideon: “Yes.”

Bill: What else does he know?

Gideon: “What is coming, relating to the coming years ahead.”

Bill: He had a high clearance?

Gideon: “When he was operating, yes, but he has very good contacts now, who give him fresh intel.”

Bill: How much does the cabal know about him?

Gideon: “He has protected himself well. As far as the cabal is concerned, he is a retired Sovereign. He is not targeted.”

Bill: He is Sovereign? Through our team, or through them?

Gideon: “Through the cabal.”

Bill: Incredible. I don't want to get sidetracked here, but how did he describe the process of being brought in as a Sovereign class? Is it like how our team does it?

Gideon: “It is similar. All cabalists have contacts, or intermediaries, who arrange things. We handle it in a much more simplified way, where we impart the things that are necessary to activate accounts, whereas the cabal puts together somewhat more formal arrangements. You might call them 'account managers' who handle the accounts of hundreds, even thousands of cabalists, and they work through them.”

Bill: Will he be part of our team?

Gideon: “No, but he will help us.”

Bill: So, he told his family the truth. I'm assuming he had to make sure the cabal would not hear or see him do that, right?

Gideon: “He has the knowledge and ability to ensure surveillance was not possible during the conversations he had. Even if the cabal could hear the conversations, I am not sure it would be a problem, as he is a Sovereign. He was concerned because he imparted some very classified things that even Sovereign's at his family level should not know.”

Bill: His family just didn't believe him?

Gideon: “No, it was not that. He discovered that his revelation to them had little or nothing to do with how they turned against him. He found out the undoing of his family was already underway. That is when I began to investigate, and we both came to realize the cabal has a program in place to slowly cause discord and problems in relationships worldwide.”

Bill: How did he know it wasn't the information he shared with them?

Gideon: “A multitude of data points. He hired a private investigator. Once he began looking, it was discovered his wife was engaging in an affair. It was also discovered his children were getting involved in a sort of cult, one tied to the cabal. Some of it is actually on TikTok, which the children were watching. They are college-aged children.

The P.I. unraveled an entire betrayal that had been going on many months prior, about five months prior to the revelations he shared with them. When he then told them the truth it simply accelerated the inevitable destruction of his family, but it was not the cause or real catalyst.”

Bill: Now, all this pertains to a much broader issue, which we'll get to. It's chilling and disturbing. It's got to do with A.I.

Gideon: “It does, yes.”

Bill: You discovered the affair the wife was having was with an A.I. generated male online, is that right?

Gideon: “Yes. Eventually, my friend confronted her with the evidence his P.I. discovered. She rejected it. The evidence itself was not convincing enough for her. At that point, she continued to engage with the A.I. male online, continuing on in this affair.”

Bill: Won't she find out that man isn't real?

Gideon: “Not necessarily, Bill, and this is where the aspect of Obsidian ties in, which was something we later discovered. There is a subsystem within Obsidian, it is called Hex. It is extremely complex in terms of its capabilities to influence and direct relationships using technology and social media. It is an entire new wrinkle in everything."

Bill: Is it specifically called Hex? We've had to use code words in the past, to protect the whistle blowers, obviously, so I'm just curious.

Gideon: "I will neither confirm nor deny that. It is important to understand the name itself is not important, what is important is the functionality of this subsystem."

Bill: So your friend believes, and you believe now, that Hex directly caused his family to basically abandon him?

Gideon: "Yes."

Bill: But it wasn't a direct assault by the cabal, it was just the system working automatically, is that right?

Gideon: "That is what we believe. We do not believe he was intentionally targeted in a direct way by the cabal, but more through an automated process, one that will begin to happen to millions of people once Hex's testing phase is done."

Bill: But he's part of the cabal, why would they do that to him? He's one of them, or at least, they still think he is.

Gideon: "Something we have learned is that the cabal is deeply hierarchical. The cabal is known test their own members. In this case, since he is ex-intelligence, he believes the cabal would prefer he be a lone wolf after the Reset, with no family connections. They may want to re-activate him out of retirement."

This may have been a decision made by his former superiors, or simply a decision made by Obsidian's A.I. automatically. In any case, the Hex subsystem began influencing his family, which led to the eventual betrayal of his wife and the rejection of his children toward him."

Bill: I think outside observers would just think it's just family issues, wouldn't they? Which would make it hard to detect or prove, too.

Gideon: "They may. Relationships naturally experience ups and downs. Divorces happen. Children disagree with parents. We concretely believe this was not any of that, that this was part of a directed cabal program, one that is being tested and will be used on a mass scale. One that will have the capability of destroying family units. The whistle blowers helped verify some of it, relating to my friend, so we confirmed it conclusively."

Bill: I don't think it's a shock the cabal would want that, to destroy families, I absolutely think they want that.

Gideon: "They do. A close family unit threatens the agenda."

Bill: Do you think the election of Trump would play into that? There's so many Kamala voters refusing to speak to Trump voters over the holidays.

Gideon: "We think Hex is being tested and deployed in the United States, and certainly it will utilize the emotions people feel about politics."

Bill: Will this affect you and me, and our team?

Gideon: "Yes."

Bill: How? What can we do to be aware of it?

Gideon: "It is critical our team remain strong. We have had some minor issues in the past, whereby family members learn about what we are doing and they are against it. Their reasons can vary. In most cases, the family member, usually a spouse, did not understand our mission at all. They were not aware of CBDCs, or Agenda 2030, or we had some examples of a spouse who was Trump supporter or followed Q Anon, and rejected that the cabal had this kind of power."

Bill: I know, I know all about this, because Michael and me had to deal with it. Really stressful. The family members don't get it.

Gideon: “We always understood that was a potential hazard, and we handled it. In light of discovering Hex, this component of Obsidian, there is much more concern.”

Bill: What might our team look for, or anyone for that matter, what kind of sign might they watch out for in terms of how Hex might be working against them?

Gideon: “That is a very good question. We have looked into that, in how to differentiate between the natural disagreements people have within relationships and something outside, an artificial influence, that might unduly rip people apart through manipulation.

We have found there are some key things to look at. The main areas that people will become drawn into Hex is through social media, almost primarily. Hex can then link people together and bring about real life interactions, but they almost always begin online.

In my friend's case, his wife began talking to a man on Facebook. That man was not real, but rather an A.I. cabal creation, one that was incredibly convincing. His children were drawn into a cult on TikTok. This is how it is working.

On a final note, as I have warned before, do not look at A.I. generated images, if you can avoid them.”

Bill: Oh, I'm very much with you on that, there's something disturbing about the images. Do you think this might have influenced his wife? Because you told me this hurt him so much because they had such a strong marriage.

Gideon: “We both believe that. I have seen the man on Facebook she began talking to. There are many images, some videos, and they are A.I. generated, but extremely realistic. Probably more realistic than the public versions we see. This is advanced A.I. imagery not available to the public. There is something within it, in looking at it, that imparts subliminal messages. Evil energy. Please, avoid any A.I. images, if you can.”

Bill: It did something to his wife, then. She probably didn't know.

Gideon: “Without knowledge of Hex, or deep knowledge of cabal tactics, or deep spiritual strength, anyone could be susceptible to Hex, in terms of how it is operating online.”

Bill: One thing people don't realize is that you can actually do a video call with someone and A.I. can make that person look like someone else, in real time. They have put another face on someone during the video call and it looks real. So, we can't even trust a video call.

Gideon: “No, we cannot, because the cabal can simulate that. The wife eventually had video calls with the man she was talking to, and they were very realistic. Our investigation discovered that person was not real, or who they were presenting as. He showed his wife this evidence, but she refused to believe it, partly because she had already built such a convincing relationship with this man. It felt very real to her, and she was romantically blinded, as well.

The A.I. man was also very attractive, something we are seeing being done to men, with attractive generated females online. It is in a testing phase right now, so it is not fully deployed, but once it is, it will cause havoc in relationships. Married men will be contacted on Facebook, for example, by completely realistic profiles of females likely not in the same town or city they live, but relatively close. The conversation and engagement will appear natural. The profiles will contain friends and look entirely real.

The cabal can generate all of this with ease because they have full access on the back-end of Facebook and all social media sites. They have been farming the data for years and feeding it into their A.I. This is really only the tip of the iceberg in terms of what A.I. can do and will do to this world.”

Bill: Something occurred to me, since your friend is Sovereign, and he's part of the cabal, was the family part of the cabal? I mean, evil in that sense?

Gideon: “No. While my friend was a cabal initiate early in his career and life, he carefully kept that side of life separate from his family. The cabal does not always require whole families to be initiates, or involved in cabal meetings or rituals. In the intelligence field, this is even less likely, because the cabal prefers families not to be aware of what the initiate is doing in the intelligence field. This is called compartmentalization.

This would not apply to oligarchies or political families, though, as usually the spouse and children have some involvement in cabal rituals and initiations. For example, in terms Trump's family and Kamala Harris' family, the spouse and some of the children would be initiates. The young children would likely have been to a ritual party or setting, to be initiated. These are Satanic covens, quite often, and there is sexual abuse involved.”

Bill: That would not surprise me at all, not in the least. Was your friend always against the cabal, or did he turn against them later on?

Gideon: “He turned against them half way through his career, gave his heart to Christ, then quietly made decisions on how to preserve himself and his family, spiritually. It was not easy. Of the few cabalists who are defectors, how they reach out and communicate with people like myself involves careful networking over many years. We were able to connect and stay in touch, and avoid detection, partly due to our own training.”

Bill: How aware and concerned is the cabal of these defectors? They must know they exist.

Gideon: “They do, and they are not terribly concerned, especially if they keep a low-profile. Even if the cabal knew of my friend's true intentions and where his heart lies, they may not do anything to him, other than apply Hex to his family, if such was intentionally done. They may wait and watch him, to see if they can turn him back toward them or compromise him. The cabal is much more interested in compromising people than aggressively eliminating their opposition.”

Bill: Very interesting. I hope people realize that if the cabal wants to attack someone, or go after us, or make people believe something, they have the ability to do it. So, stop trusting these damn gatekeepers and think on your own, please.

Gideon: "Indeed. If someone is attacking someone else, stop and question the evidence being presented, as it may be entirely generated out of thin air with the cabal's advanced A.I. generation capabilities, that even extend far beyond imagery and to actually manipulating the code of websites and editing the history of the Internet itself, and even official government or media records."

Bill: What's the real purpose of Hex, by the way, overall?

Gideon: "To ensure those who resist the cabal do not have the support of friends or family, when the Reset takes place and thereafter. It also has the purpose of isolating people, in general, so that they rely more on technology. Hex may also not necessarily destroy relationships, but rather influence them in certain directions, or build small seeds of mistrust."

It will also be used to deploy A.I. images and video, that are more realistic to what the public has seen, which the public can usually determine is A.I. The more advanced A.I. is almost impossible to tell apart from real life. The cabal will use it as a mind control vehicle. It is very dangerous, because it seems to transmit very dark energy when viewed."

Bill: Will it tie into Starlink and the activation?

Gideon: "Potentially, all of it ties together."

Bill: Is it entirely run by A.I.?

Gideon: "No, there are system managers within Obsidian who are operating and testing it, and overseeing it, but the main systems do operate independently."

Bill: One thing I'm stunned by is the fact your friend is Sovereign and this still happened to him. What Sovereigns will be exempt from this?

Gideon: "I am unsure I wish to disclose what we have told our team, but there are various levels, we shall say, within the Sovereign hierarchy. Our team will know what I am speaking of. My friend is not a high level, and we believe this is why Hex was deployed against him."

Bill: You told me his level or tier, can we say that here?

Gideon: "We best not. For our team, I believe we should disclose that on our password-protected page. I believe it will be instructive. We need to be aware and prepared for this, for how Hex might be used against us."

Most people, if they knew my friend's financial standing, would believe he is a moderate-level cabalist, based on his USDR holdings, but it is not that simple. It is not that simple because there are many, many cabal Sovereigns above him with hundreds of Millions and Billions in USDR, into the Trillions upon Trillions, and they are prioritized within the hierarchy. They are exempted from these manipulations. Generally speaking, it appears cabalists are ranked based on their fiat or USDR holdings. Money is extremely important to the cabal, it is how they value a person."

Bill: Do you think those higher up on these tiers will not be affected by Hex?

Gideon: "The whistle blowers know already, Bill. We will discuss that privately with our team. They can see what is going on within the back-end of Obsidian, and how Hex is being implemented. They can see that at a certain tier, Hex is not being deployed, and it is even specifically banned from use within the Sovereign account."

Bill: So the cabal is protecting some of their own, within that hierarchy?

Gideon: "That is correct."

Bill: They just don't care that much about these lower level Sovereigns?

Gideon: "It is not that they do not care, it is that they are willing to test them more, or use them."

Bill: This is one thing that's become more and more evident to us, and that's how Sovereign status is so much more hierarchical than we thought, but it's not a surprise at all, I suppose.

Gideon: "No, and it is expected. The whistle blowers simply did not have access to this information until recently, when it was unlocked for them."

Bill: What does all this mean for people reading now? I mean, if someone is Quarantined or Restricted status, which most people reading would be, then Hex will be used against them, right?

Gideon: "Almost certainly it will, yes."

Bill: What can they do?

Gideon: "If someone is Quarantined or Restricted, they will be facing Hex tearing apart their familial connections. They will be facing Starlink activation via the nano dust, travel restrictions, possible vaccination requirements and so on. They will be facing the fact all of their fiat wealth has gone to zero, that their XRP holdings that they thought were the future CBDC are now worthless, for example. That is not to mention the drone technology Elon Musk is actually pointing out."

Bill: Yes! Here we were talking about drones in our Intel Drops over two years ago, trying to press the issue, and now Elon is openly showing it, not just one Tweet, but a few of them, declaring that drones are the future. It's just mind-blowing to see things come full circle in that way. Another confirmation. The cabal is just shoving it all in our faces, what's coming.

Gideon: "They absolutely are. We are very close to the end game, the New World Order. It will come packaged in something unexpected, brought to us by our saviors, who are defeating false enemies. It is all controlled and conducted by the cabal, behind the scenes. This is the true fall of man, what is coming. I believe the Book of Revelation is instructive, too, despite the alterations, there is still truth in it."

Bill: I agree. We're already seeing some major moves to restrict online access. Seems like its happening in Europe and Australia right now. What's the cabal's end game on the Internet?

Gideon: “Access only for those with Digital ID, which will be operating through Obsidian. A number of sites will be removed. They already tested removing the Internet Archive.”

Bill: Yep, they completely took it down, then put it back up.

Gideon: “The cabal removed it, as a test. If removed, then the entire history of the Internet will be erased.”

Bill: I saw you can't even go on Godlikeproductions.com anymore if you use a VPN. That's outrageous.

Gideon: “Indeed. The site is now logging all of the IP addresses. I recommend not posting or visiting there at all.”

Bill: I still look, but I use a certain device with the VPN off. Is that safe?

Gideon: “We can talk about it privately. It can be done safely, yes, but with care. As I said, all IP addresses viewing Godlikeproductions.com are being aggressively logged right now.

They are also doing this on X, which is why some truth has been allowed there, especially about Israel. The cabal wanted to identify every person who was against Israel, and now they have, if that person did not use a VPN and anonymous account, now the cabal knows. All of those people will be placed in Quarantined status in Obsidian. It is in the tens of millions of people.”

Bill: I posted about how their new payment system is a direct confirmation of one of our Intel Drops from over a year ago. You said exactly that's what X would be used for, payments, and it's happening. It's Obsidian.

Gideon: "It is. With X, it is growing in power, upgrades and influence, as expected and predicted. I discussed in the past that Trump and Musk are cabal assets. The agenda will now move forward without any resistance."

Bill: Why no resistance?

Gideon: "Because the world, the public, is falling back asleep. I must warn everyone, nothing about the Trump Administration shaping up is to be trusted at all. It is not what you think. His better picks, who you might say are RFK, Gabbard and Kash Patel, are not good picks, because they wholly and completely support Israel, if you examine their public comments. They are, in fact, no different from his other picks, in that sense."

Bill: No, I know that, this new Trump Administration is a huge fraud. Kushner is really involved, the guy who bought that '666' building in New York City. Some people think he's the Anti-Christ. I mean, I don't think that, but he's a bad guy. Some of these people he's picking are just horrible picks.

Gideon: "It is, in part, a humiliation ritual. It is to say, 'We know you, the voters, do not like these people, but we will place them in positions of power despite what you think.' It is appalling."

Bill: Will these so-called 'good' picks do anything? Like RFK? And now all over X, they're saying Kash Patel will reveal the Epstein and Diddy list. Seems ridiculous to me, but will he?

Gideon: "Nothing will happen. They say the things people want to hear, but they do not do them."

Bill: We said RFK wasn't Sovereign, do you have an update on him?

Gideon: "He now has a Sovereign account with in-flows, the whistle blowers looked. But the in-flows are coming from existing Sovereigns, they are a mix of direct in-flows and transfers. The direct in-flows are more difficult to determine their origination, but the transfers are very telling. Some are coming from wealthy, old blood cabal families in Europe. Our speculation is that RFK knows about his Sovereign account, but has not fully committed to it."

Bill: How controlled is he, do you think?

Gideon: "He was never controlled completely until recently, where it appears he has some kind of agreement with the cabal."

Bill: Why do you think that?

Gideon: "I was told that. He knows something that can damage the cabal significantly. It is from his family connections."

Bill: I feel like the cabal can just kill anyone if they want to, why don't they kill him?

Gideon: "Bill, there are still spiritual forces at play here. First, the cabal gains very little to nothing spiritual by outright murder. If they do such a thing, it is usually a last resort, or some kind of sacrifice, or something beyond the obvious. The cabal only rarely eliminates high-profile threats through murder. They gain far, far more spiritually by corrupting that person, instead, or destroying their lives and dragging them into depression and isolation."

Bill: But there's definitely been some people eliminated, it seems like, like whistle blowers, or guys like Bill Cooper, he was gunned down by Sheriffs deputies in Arizona.

Gideon: "It does happen, in fact, more often to people you may have never heard about. People who have deep knowledge or stumble upon it, and must be removed. People with certain spiritual strengths, that the cabal simply decides are more trouble than they are worth. But, some of those cases were not necessarily the cabal taking action, either."

Bill: Ok, so we're clear, the cabal does kill people, they might kill us, but they gain a lot more if they keep someone alive and ruin them?

Gideon: “Very much so. Or compromise their soul before they eliminate them. The cabal's primary interest is in capturing the soul.”

Bill: I don't want to get too off track here, but this is incredible stuff, it's very interesting to me. Let's try to get back to what we were talking about. You were able to conclusively show your friend's family was undone by Hex, from there you're saying it's being tested now and it's going to be deployed with Obsidian. You're also saying Trump is a false awakening. I agree, I think people were lulled back asleep. Seems like people think the cabal lost or something, which is ridiculous.

Gideon: “Trump winning had nothing to do with any kind of setback for the cabal, quite the contrary. There is a deep thread of evil between Trump, Musk and those surrounding him, something evident if you observe very carefully. In no way is Donald Trump a Christian as he presents. While the media attacks against him are generally false, and the reason the Left hates him are generally baseless, that is irrelevant as to the truth of the man, and the truth is that he is compromised.”

Bill: Then you have the fact Elon is pushing all of the transhumanist agenda. It's all there, he supports UBI, which is to say USDR, he's behind Neuralink, he's talking about how A.I. Is going to 'replace' people, on and on it goes with his odd connections. Then there's the symbolism, the Satanic symbolism he doesn't hide from, that his mother drapes herself in.

Gideon: “He is a figurehead of the cabal. No one who spends that much time Tweeting and playing video games is running that many companies. He is a figurehead, but also a high initiate. While his wealth is somewhat ill-gotten through government contracts, his wealth is also genuine in the eyes of the cabal. The whistle blowers told me his USDR holdings are extremely high in Obsidian, but they also know there are people above him they are not allowed to access with far higher holdings. Those individuals would have astronomically higher holdings.”

Bill: If you could rank Musk, how high up would he be, out of the 10 million Sovereigns?

Gideon: “Within the top 10,000, in my opinion. Bear in mind, such is a rough estimate.”

Bill: High, but not at the very top.

Gideon: “No, not at all. He takes orders from many above him.”

Bill: Where would Trump be?

Gideon: “Within the top 50,000, but no higher.”

Bill: Really? I mean, it's high, but not as high as I would think.

Gideon: “He is primarily an actor, Bill. A very good one. He takes direction from those he knows are above him, while he plays a role. Look into his past, and the answers are all there. Look at who he was close to, colleagues like Roy Cohn. You only see what they show you. You do not see the deals and discussions that go on behind the scenes. You would also would not believe what people will do for money, or to save their own skin or protect their families, if threatened.”

Bill: I'm still just so conflicted on the assassination attempt. It felt so real. But then, we never really saw his ear, and they hid it, which was so strange. Plus, in the Jewish religion, you actually cut your right ear intentionally to submit to another seven years of slavery. So, it's symbolic. Trump submitted to another seven years of being a slave to the Jews. It was so hard to believe, too, he turns his head at the right time, then the photos and the fist pump. Just hard to believe.

Gideon: “It did not happen as we were led to believe, and the story arc of the election was scripted. It was a TV show, and they changed the channel, so to speak, quickly after he won, appointing cabalists to key positions and whiffing on promises. It will continue to get worse. Trump's Treasury pick is atrocious, for example.”

Bill: He is, Scott Bessent, it's incredible to me that Trump supporters could accept that, to their face. It's a slap in the face. My mind just jumped to these UFO sightings the past few days. I'm realizing the cabal could fake all of that, too.

Gideon: “Yes, I would advise one exercise a high level of skepticism toward anything shown on television or on X, or formerly Twitter. No matter the source. No matter if the source seems genuine. You must realize how many gatekeeping accounts exist. There are thousands, all of them paid well, all of them acquiring USDR within Obsidian.”

Bill: That reminds me of the payments, which I posted about, some people are seeing what's going on.

Gideon: “A few are, very few.”

Bill: I feel like David Icke sees it, and maybe three or four other accounts I see on X. By that, I mean accounts with some kind of following.

Gideon: “The cabal monitors them carefully, to see how much influence they have.”

Bill: You know what I can't believe? How much David Icke gets attacked in the comments to his Tweets. There's just so many people attacking him, very negative, most just saying more or less, "It's not that bad, David," and "Trump's good" and so on. If even his own followers can't wake up, we are really, really down the line here.

Gideon: “Some of them are agents, Bill, but not all. Indeed, the world is not as awake as it seems to believe it is. We are not prepared. People are not prepared, at all, for what is coming. Many reject what we say, what David says. It is disappointing.”

Bill: You told me a very, very high level person said our team is one of the most critical missions in the coming years, to save this world. What did they say? Because that's a very important person. I don't know if you can name them or not.

Gideon: “I cannot, but the name is recognizable by everyone. They are a spiritual leader who has been attacked, and a gifted person. They complimented our efforts, and said we may be the last line of defense against Obsidian. They will be helping us, as well.”

Bill: Good. We want to do another Cosmic Rules Are About To Change entry in our series, it should be our next Intel Drop, because there's tremendous spiritual questions we need to address.

Gideon: “We do, and there are significant new things I have learned that I wish to share.”

Bill: The biggest part of this is the spiritual aspect, the problem is, the cabal knows more about spirituality than most people, than most Christians, I find, and that's sad. I mean, I don't mean that the cabal is spiritual, they're not spiritual in a good way, they're evil, they just understand it better. It's not white-washed for them, they know the rules.

Gideon: “They do, but they do not respect at all God’s laws or rules, to the extent they can get away with it, but certainly they understand the full spiritual picture. It is just from a point of view of evil, where their intentions lie in control, in money, in corruption. It extends into the next life, of course, as well, where they dwell and control vast areas of realms beyond what we can see.

Being prepared for the next life is more important than this one, but what we do in this life sets the stage for where we will go in the next.”

Bill: Someone wrote me and said I wasn't a Christian, because I wasn't just trusting in Jesus. It's like they think I'm weak or something because I don't just give it all up to Jesus and sit on my hands, that's what I felt like saying. I don't think that's what Jesus wanted out of his followers, to sit, wait, and believe in Trump or something.

Gideon: “Bill, the Bible has been changed and corrupted, books removed from it, and many others altered, and we can prove via the Mandella Effect that countless scriptures have been changed and many words changed.

Many pastors, preachers and preists do not even read their Bibles, and few, hardly any, ever noticed the changes in the Bible. That tells you they have zero spiritual discernment. Zero. The Bible now has the word 'Matrix' in it, and we all know that word never existed in any real Bible we read as children or growing up, and no pastor has noticed this?

God allowed this, because the cabal declared that mankind had given itself over to evil. God could not disagree, God could not find a way to say mankind had not done so.”

Bill: We talked about this before. This isn't God's choice, it's our choice.

Gideon: “The children are faultless, though, and that is the great tragedy. They will be the truest victims of this Reset, and Agenda 2030. What awaits this world after 2030 is a true horror.”

Bill: I think our team gets it, but I'm not sure the people reading get it. I don't know. I think we've had very poor support for two years, I'm sorry to say. I see gatekeepers accounts on Telegram with 200,000 people in them being fed all kinds of obvious cabal nonsense, usually promoting Trump. It makes me want to give up. We've been right, over and over, through dozens of Intel Drops, right about all of it, well, you have been proven right over and over, for years. We're ignored, and the agents just hammer us if we gain any traction, they attack right away. I still get threatening, nasty emails constantly, too.

Gideon: “It is not our job to compete with the cabal, with evil. It is our job to present the truth, nothing more. It is up to those who read to do the work to share it with others. We cannot control what people do, Bill. You need to make peace with that. I know you care, but you need to make peace with it.

I said two years ago that we would not defeat the cabal this way unless millions saw our information. That did not happen, either the information was not shared to a great extent, the cabal's censorship efforts worked and the agent attacks easily dissuaded people, so we formed our team to do the work when the time comes, and we will.”

Bill: I know. I just have something in my gut that says I want to wake people up, and to fight and save them, but I see there's no way that's happening now that Trump won.

People think the cabal lost. People are riding high now. They're turning their brains off and waiting for Trump to save them, again. Meanwhile, Musk puts up a few thousand more Starlink satellites, wrapping the Earth in a shell of direct energy weapons that can track and target every person right down to their nose hairs. How the hell was he allowed to junk space up like that?

Gideon: "There is no oversight, let alone any common sense, that so many of those satellites would be allowed to be positioned, or littered, all over our Earth in such a way. No one questioned it, because the cabal is running this planet."

Bill: I know. It's just disheartening. I know what's coming and it scares the hell out of me. It does. Especially this thing in 2026. We need to be prepared for that. I think we will be. Do you want to talk about that?

[Comms interrupted for five minutes]

Gideon: "We can speak now."

Bill: Ok, finally it happened. Are we secure?

Gideon: "We are."

Bill: Where was I, ok, I was asking about 2026.

Gideon: "They do not want me talking about it, I think. We can try again."

Bill: Alright, let's see if comms hold up.

Gideon: "In 2026, you will best not be in the Northern Hemisphere. That is what I can say without the comms being cut off. If I say anything else specific, it will be cut off."

This is one reason Sovereigns are acquiring so much USDR, to be able to financially make the move south. It is why Milei is in Argentina, to re-position that country as an cabal enclave and safe zone. The cabal is moving significant assets to the Southern Hemisphere, too, quietly."

Bill: I know, you've told me through our other method of communicating, which is not what people would guess, it's really unusual. But we have to do it when this happens.

Gideon: "Parts of Antarctica are greening, that is a clue. It is not because of global warming. I probably should not say that."

Bill: I've seen some photos, wasn't sure if they were real, you're saying they are?

Gideon: "They are. Ironically, the cabal gatekeepers may claim they are A.I."

Bill: It's not good, what's coming. It's horrible. I mean, if it really happens, Obsidian would make sense, as to how to keep the world from falling apart.

Gideon: "Musk and Trump will have a role with Obsidian in this way, we believe. Saviors of the world, they will seem to be."

Bill: That's how it's going to be sold. Big events are coming. Would you say we have one month left?

Gideon: "No, but 2025 and 2026 are catalyst years. They are years that will reorganize the world. We also see the destruction of the United States coming. Listen carefully to Trump and Musk, they are signaling things. They know what is coming."

Bill: Is the blackout, invasion and break up of the U.S. Still on the table?

Gideon: "Yes, it is."

Bill: What about Putin and this escalation going on? Is it all just bluffing?

Gideon: "No. A nuclear exchange is very possible. They will do this on purpose, of course. There is a World War Three scenario they seem to want to do, but the cabal's own A.I. is not recommending it. A source of mine told me this, and I found it highly plausible."

Bill: All I know is, we have to protect our team, or we'll lose everything. We're only as strong as our weakest link. I have sleepless nights thinking about our team and hoping, praying no one betrays us or falls prey to some trick by an agent. The agents just lie relentlessly, and they have the tools available to make up convincing lies.

Gideon: "I believe I made good choices in who we brought on, but I allow for free will. I put my faith in God, ultimately, I pray He will step in and help us, if we are, in fact, betrayed."

Bill: I'm going to bring this to a close, it's been a wonderful discussion, and as always, it seems to just lead to more and more questions. I hope we can get into more spiritual topics for our next Intel Drop.

Gideon: "I want that as well, before the new year. It is critical."

Bill: Ok, God bless and be safe my friend.

Gideon: "You as well, we will speak soon. Goodnight."
