

Grey Kitchens Top 2022 Design Trends Are Here!

Whether you are redecorating your home or starting from scratch, you may be often confused to choose the right design for your home. Choosing your colour may not always be simple as you have several options to choose from. Before you think of selecting the colour, you may consider the styling and layout of your room. Grey kitchens have been a talk of the town for a long time. A majority of shades close to brown was in trend from the 1950s. However, grey rose to attention in the past decade. The current generation willing to experiment with colours may consider opting for grey kitchens.

Grey Kitchens Top 2022 Design Trends Are Here!

Grey is the shade of the moment for those who look for stylish kitchen ideas. Of course, people would primarily choose blue while thinking of calm kitchens, but grey is perfect. Grey kitchens can be relaxing and neutral, coming under different variations. Here we list some of the unique Grey Kitchen Ideas that you may find interesting.

Bring In Some Wooden Elements

You can create a grey kitchen unit with wooden elements for your apartment. We will add wooden countertops and worktops to the grey finished kitchen units to make them more natural. Dark wood matched with grey fronts might bring elegance to the kitchens, whereas the light finish creates a subtle feeling.

Let's Try Out Shaker Style

Grey shaker kitchens are a great way to introduce a traditional design with soft tones to any space. In addition, shaker cabinet designs are often symmetrical and shy away from intricate carvings and ornamentation. So if you are looking for a sleek yet stylish kitchen design, go for grey shaker kitchens.

Grey Kitchen With Modular Shelving

Grey kitchens with modular shelving options would be perfect for keeping things organised. However, if you have a smaller space, you will maximise the available space. Here, you can go for floating shelves on the top for better storage and lower cabinets that can be used to keep daily using stuff.

Palm Beach Grey Kitchen

Those looking for a luxurious kitchen can try out the palm beach grey kitchen. The palm grey finish offers the perfect balance of warmth and neutrality, working well in nearly any size kitchen, creating an elegant look inside the kitchen. You can add white worktops and these grey shades to make it look more stunning.

Grey U-Shaped Kitchens

High-end grey U-shaped kitchens provide the golden triangle functionality. You can have multiple countertops and kitchen appliances as you have separate space for everything. The colour variations range from subtle grey shades to a high gloss finish. You can also go for countertops with marble, quartz and granite for the interior.

Grey & Gold Finish

Golden shade could create a memorable impression in every kitchen. Grey and Gold would be a perfect combination of class and elegance. Moreover, they can warm the contemporary feeling inside every kitchen. The golden finish is ideal for both small spaces and large spaces as it brings more of a kind of rich interiors.

Lacquered Grey Kitchens

Lacquered grey kitchens have been among the most selling kitchen designs in the last few years. The lacquer kitchen grey doors are easy to install and perfectly fit every interior. You can opt for dull tint on kitchen cabinets for those who like muted finish. You can opt for a medium grey finish if you want to highlight the grains and hue to have a standard feel. Finally, we can select the glossy grey lacquer finish on the kitchen cabinet for highly reflective surfaces.

Open Style Kitchens Are In

Open shelving helps in creating a better space inside the kitchen. The benefit of an open kitchen with a grey finish is that it's pretty flexible and easy to use. They are also a good option if you have some odd, unusable space in your kitchen, reducing the wastage in the area. If you have a smaller budget, an open kitchen in the grey shade is just the one for you as it reduces the price of cabinetry considerably.

Bottom Line

Irrespective of the trend, people are still looking for practical storage and beautiful interiors in the kitchen. Grey kitchen designs would be an asset to every home as they would ideally create a better impression inside your home. Whatever your budget, space, and aspirations are, Inspired Elements will be with you in your journey to create a beautiful kitchen fitting exactly your requirement. To know more about our grey kitchen designs, visit our portfolio.