

What Factors Influence Panini's Football Card Choices?

Panini's football card choices are influenced by factors such as player popularity, performance, and market demand. They focus on including star athletes, emerging talents, and popular teams. Licensing agreements with leagues and clubs play a key role, as does fan interest in specific moments or seasons. Limited editions and rarity also drive the selection process.

