

Hardik Pandya's Top 5 Knocks in IPL That Showcased His Power

When it comes to explosive batting in the Indian Premier League, few can match the raw power and flair of Hardik Pandya. From lower-order cameos to match-defining innings, Hardik has developed a reputation for turning games on their head with sheer brute force. His aggressive style, clean hitting, and calmness under pressure make him one of the most dangerous batters in the format. Over the years, he has delivered some unforgettable knocks that left fans in awe and bowlers scratching their heads.

Here's a look at Hardik Pandya's top five IPL innings that showcased the full extent of his power-hitting abilities.

1. 91 off 34 balls vs Kolkata Knight Riders (2019)

This is perhaps the most explosive innings Hardik has ever played in the IPL. Chasing a daunting total of over 230, Mumbai Indians were under serious pressure when Hardik walked in. What followed was absolute carnage. With nine sixes and six boundaries, he smashed his way to 91 in just 34 deliveries. He didn't just hit big — he hit clean and often. Though MI didn't win the match, Pandya's innings turned a one-sided affair into a thriller. It was a reminder of how dangerous he can be once he gets going.

2. 60 off 21 balls vs Rajasthan Royals (2020)

In this match, Pandya showcased why he's one of the best finishers in the business. Coming in with just a few overs left, he made full use of the platform set by the top order. His 21-ball 60 was filled with jaw-dropping sixes and powerful drives. What made this innings special was how quickly he switched gears — no settling in, just pure intent from the start. Rajasthan's bowlers had no answers, and his blitz ensured Mumbai ended with a massive total on the board.

3. 62 off 47 balls vs Chennai Super Kings (2022)*

This innings was different from Hardik's usual firework shows. Leading Gujarat Titans in a high-pressure game against CSK, he played a mature, measured knock. It wasn't about the number of sixes, but the timing, placement, and intelligent strike rotation. He paced his innings brilliantly, mixing caution with calculated aggression. His unbeaten 62 was a captain's knock, underlining that he could not only finish innings with power but also anchor them when needed.

4. 61 off 31 balls vs Kolkata Knight Riders (2015)

In his early years with Mumbai Indians, Hardik gave a glimpse of his potential with a blistering 61 off 31 balls against KKR. Coming in at a time when quick runs were needed, he launched a counterattack that left the opposition stunned. With fearless intent, he took on seasoned bowlers and cleared the boundary with ease. It was the kind of innings that turned heads and announced the arrival of a future IPL star.

5. 50 off 20 balls vs Delhi Capitals (2019)

Short, sharp, and brutal — that's the best way to describe this innings. Delhi Capitals were in control of the game until Hardik walked out. In no time, he turned the tide with an explosive 20-ball 50 that left the bowling unit in disarray. What stood out was the confidence in his shot selection and his ability to pick the right moments to attack. It was a classic Hardik Pandya knock — calculated mayhem with a touch of flair.

Final Thoughts

Hardik Pandya's power-hitting is not just about muscle — it's a mix of timing, confidence, and game awareness. Whether it's chasing a massive target or setting up a big finish, he thrives under pressure. His ability to change the course of a match within a few overs makes him one of the most feared hitters in the IPL. As he continues to evolve as a cricketer and leader, fans can be sure that there are plenty more explosive knocks to come from Hardik's bat.
