

Lateral move vs vertical move

A lateral move is a career change to a different role at the same hierarchical level, focusing on gaining new skills, experience in another department, or better work-life balance, rather than a promotion (vertical move) with more pay/responsibility. It's a "sideways" shift, often internal, offering growth through diverse tasks, new challenges, and exploration, common in modern "jungle gym" career paths.

Lateral move vs vertical move