

Forklift Scanner

A forklift scanner is an industrial device attached to a forklift that reads barcodes or RFID tags, enabling automated data capture for inventory management. It enhances efficiency by tracking goods, ensuring accurate stock counts, and streamlining logistics processes in warehouses and distribution centers, reducing manual scanning efforts.