

Vanouska Modely | Founder of the Football World Heritage Organization

Princess Rani Vanouska T. Modely, also known as Vanessa Modely, is a model, philanthropist, entrepreneur, and public figure engaged in the social, human rights, and education sectors. She started to be active in politics as a Goodwill Ambassador, a Special Adviser to the National French Commission of UNESCO, and the Vice President of UNESCO Circle. She is the President of the Football World Heritage Organization, and the official ambassador delegate to lead the candidacy of Football as a world intangible heritage to be registered on UNESCO's list.

