Why Choose Carlton Private Investigations and Security Consultancy Pte Ltd?

We believe in effective deployment of our resources at an affordable rate to you. Many would be in dire straits by the time they decide to engage a private investigator. The cost of waiting and in losing a battle which may alter your life ahead and spiral you down the abyss is not a logical step forward.

Therefore, it really makes no sense for you to continue with that procrastination. The fear of uncertainties, the reprisal, the disgruntlement, and the sadness that will eventually cripple you and your family till the very end has to stop. The best thing that one can do for oneself is to take a step back, find someone that can help you regain your stead and put you back in control of the situation.

While we do not profess ourselves to know everything, we certainly have come this far to be confident enough to say that our combined experience can be the #1 Top Private Investigator in Singapore.

“My ex-wife had the cheek to demand for exorbitant amount of matrimonial assets and absurdly high maintenance fees until Carlton Investigators found out that she was actually cheating on me and had been sleeping with that dance instructor of hers.”

- MengHuat, Businessman

“After short-listing three candidates for a very important post in our company, we engaged Carlton Investigators to conduct a background check. One was found to have submitted a false qualification while another led a very questionable lifestyle. The last thing we wanted was to tarnish our public image.”
